

(Part - II)

QNO3.

QNO1.

Hiroo spent almost 30 years of his life in dense jungles fulfilling his duty despite the end of the WWII. He remained loyal and steadfast to his duty that's why he is considered a symbol of strength and loyalty.

QNO2.

During World War II, Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

QNO3.

Onoda and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 because the means of communication were cut off between Onoda and Japan.

QNO4:

Over the years, attempts were made to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the war's end. Leaflets were dropped, messages were broadcasted by the Philippines government, but the dense foliage and the skepticism of the soldiers, who believed such attempts were enemy tricks, thwarted all efforts.

QNO5:

After three decades of the war's end, Onoda's extraordinary tale gained attention. Norio Suzuki was a young adventurer who got involved in Onoda's story after it gained attention. He tried to convince Onoda that war was over. But due to Onoda's persistence of following his duties, he contacted higher ranking officials and Onoda's former commanding officers to relieve Onoda of his duties.

Q NO 6:

a) Elephant in the room:

Corruption is the elephant in the room that is halting Pakistan's progress.

b) Castles in the air:

Don't build castles in the air.

c) Burning the midnight Oil:

He burned the midnight oil to clear the CSS exam.

d) Jump on the Bandwagon:

He jumped on the bandwagon and uploaded his video to tiktok.

e) Crocodile Tears:

You can't gain my sympathy
with your crocodile's tears.

Q NO 4:

Correction

1. Hassan Ali Gondeal would rather stay at home than going to the polling station.
2. Money makes me ^{more} ~~more~~ go.
3. I wish I could go back to earlier times.
4. Advocate Malik Huzefa always looks for inspiration. None have ever come.
5. They had a wonderful time, and
luckily, none were injured.

QNO 5:

Prepositions

(B)

1. My brother sat besides me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

2. The cat jumped onto the table and knocked over the vase.

3. He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.

4. The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

5. We walked across the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

(A)

Punctuation

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, Sir!" "One Biryani is so good, it will make you forget your own name." Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran Equipped: "In Pakistan, we don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied: "True", and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party! They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

QNO7:

Translation

In about three year, all degrees will become useless. The speed of technology and the wish of getting benefits from it at faster pace will soon make previous information, sources of information or even the syllabus and subjects irrelevant. ~~Skills and ideas~~

~~when all~~ Skills and actions overpower the knowledge and ideas when all the information can be accessed by the screen of the mobile phone. Now, the evolving main apprehension is that how the narrators will engage their listeners and how the teachers will become able to teach the symbols of the universe to their students in a classroom with the availability of the benefits of internet to the students?

Q No 6

(B) Heer asked Ranga that where he had been? She has missed him so much.

Ranga said he had to travel, but assured Heer that his heart never left her. He then inquired about how she had been.

Heer said that she is lonely without him. She asked him about his journey.

Rangha replied that it was a quest for self-discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were always with her.

Heer asked him what did he learn from his journey.

Rangha replied that he learned the value of struggle and the strength it gives.

Heer said that she has been counting the days until his return.

Rangha replied that he have been counting the moments until he would succeed in his final trial.

Heer said not to dwell on the time apart as they are together now and That's all that matters.

Ranghar said no as the exams were near. He had to leave but his success will conquer distance and time.

QNO 2.

Title:

"Role of state Institutions in Reinforcing democratic Values"

Precis:

A vibrant democratic system is based on the functioning of the state institutions including, the judiciary, the executive, and the legislative branches. The role of judiciary in a democratic system is of paramount importance as it acts as a guardian of justice. Similarly, the legislative branch works for the interests of majority and serves its citizens.

Moreover, the executive branch carry out its duties ethically. For the state institutions to work effectively, upholding the sanctity of these institutions is necessary. And in order to uphold the sanctity, a vibrant leadership is essential. A leader who respects the principles and values of the state institutions can set an example to be followed by its citizens. Lastly, it is the duty of the citizens that by following the footsteps of ~~the~~ leader respect and recognize the significance of state institutions to reinforce the democratic values and ideals in the society.