All the degrees are going to be useless in next 3 years. The pace at which technology and desire to get benefits from it has increased so much that our previous knowledge and its sources are becoming less relevant. When every type of information can be gained on screen of hand fitted size of mobile phones then skill becomes more acceptable than knowledge and get more importance than thinking critically. How will the people who tell the stories on their throne will get the attention to their address about self consciousness and how will teachers teach those students in small rooms, who can get same benefit from internet.
