

2

English Composition and Precise

Q no 4

(3)

They had a wonderful time and luckily no one was injured.

(4)

If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

(5)

I wish I could go back to earlier times.

(7)

Not only Sir Majid grill a steak for Sir Azhar, but also he cooks biryani for Sir Shahab.

(9)

I was not satisfied with education I received from my university, so I took admission in NOA.

Q5

(A) Punctuation

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi's restaurant and asked the waiter, do you have biryani? The waiter grinned,

2

"Of course, Sir, our biryani is so good it'll make you forget your own name!"

Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied,

"True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

(B)

Prepositions

i)

My brother sat with me during movie and shared his popcorn.

ii)

The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.

iii)

We walked on the bridge to reach

3

the other side of the river.

The book is ^{v)} in the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.

vii)

The plane flew over the clouds, offering a breathtaking view.

Q6

(c)

Jameel is burning the midnight oil to pass the CSS exam.

e)

She was weeping crocodile tears on her husband's death.

Q7

Translation:

All the degrees are going to become useless in next three years. The speed of technology and the quest to benefit from it is so fast. Our previous knowledge, the sources of knowledge, in fact, our curriculum and subjects all of these are becoming irrelevant. When all sorts of information becomes available on the screen of a smart phone similar to the size of palm, the technique overcomes the knowledge and practice exceeds over the imagination. The basic concern of the time is that, in coming days, how will the orators telling stories from their rostrums ~~will~~ be able to unite their audience on the voice of soul. And how will teacher be able to teach those students, the lesson of the universe in a small classroom. which are benefiting from the internet at the same time

4

Q3

Q(1)

Hiroo is considered as symbol of strength and loyalty because of his resilience and unwavering loyalty to his duty. He was also a dedicated soldier.

5

Comprehension

ii)

Onada was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

iii)

Onada and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 because they were cut off from communication.

iv)

Major Yoshimi Taniguchi was sent to Lubang to officially relieve Onada of his duties. Despite Taniguchi's orders, Onada was hesitant to lay down his arms. This was because Onada was skeptic about the development war and he sought confirmation from higher ranking officers.

v)

Noxio Suzuki was a young adventurer, ventured into the jungles of Lubang with a mission to find "Lieutenant Onada".

6

Suzuki reached at the spot of Onada. Onada was cautious and tried to ambush Suzuki. Suzuki was persistent in convincing Onada that war was over, and he done it successfully.

Q2

Precis

Respecting the state institutions

Some of the fundamental state institutions are demanding respect. These state institutions act as guardian of justice, interpreter of law, settling of disputes and safeguarding rights of citizens. Citizens and leaders must refrain from undermining the authority of state institutions. These institutions respect represents the voice of people. Respecting the state institutions is crucial for a vibrant democracy. Respect is a necessary element for the institutions to perform well. When state institutions work effectively guided by principles of accountability and responsibility, the overall governance of a nation improves. Therefore respect for the state institutions goes beyond the actions of citizens. The leaders must embody the essential values to inspire public confidence and respect. Respecting state institutions is not only a societal obligation, but also a cornerstone of functioning democracy. In fact, it is the duty of citizens to recognize the significance of state institutions.

7