

Marwa Khan

LMS-30737

Batch-348

Day: _____

Date: _____

ENGLISH PRECIS AND COMPOSITION PAPER

Q2. PRECIS:

The author in a given passage discussed the significance of state institutions by stating that respecting the fundamental institutions of the state is crucial for the proper functioning of a just and democratic society. The author illustrated the importance and functioning of judicial system, legislative system and executive branch of a state and enlisted reasons for what the integrity and independence of these institutions must be celebrated by the citizens.

Moreover, the author emphasises that respect for state institutions requires leaders, especially political ones, to exemplify principles like transparent governance and ethical decision-making. Leaders' commitment to these values fosters public confidence and respect for the institutions they represent. Hence, respecting state institutions is vital for democracy, ensuring the rule of law, judicial independence and accountability. Citizens play a crucial role in recognizing their significance, contributing to their improvement, and fostering a just and progressive society.

Title:-

"Preserving Democracy: Upholding Respect for State Institutions"

Total words: 120

Q3 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

1. Answer:-

Muroo Onada is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because in world war II when tables turn for Japan Onada waited but did not give up and despite 30 years before war ended Muroo faithfully followed orders for almost 30 years and considered the messages of ending war

Day: _____

Date: _____

an enemy tactics.

2. ANSWER:-

Onada in 1944 was sent to Lubang Island in Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

3. ANSWER:-

As the tides of war turned against Japan, Onada unit found themselves isolated and cut off from communication. Therefore, Onada and his comrades were left unaware of the shifting geopolitical landscape. However, messages were delivered and leaflets were dropped, messages were broadcasted by Philippine government, but the dense foliage and skepticism of the soldier, who believed that all of these were enemies tactics.

4. ANSWER:-

Messages were broadcasted, leaflets were dropped but Onada and soldiers did not believe them and consider those means of contacts as enemy tricks.

5. ANSWER:-

Norio Suzuki was a young adventurer and therefore ventured in the jungles of Lubang with a mission to find Onada as Onada's tale at times gained attentions. Several challenges were faced by Norio among which Onada's suspiciousness counts in as it made convincing Onada more difficult. He managed to find Onada's former commanding officer yet Onada was hesitant to drop arms until he sought confirmation for higher ranking officer.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Q7. Translation:

The means of knowledge, are becoming increasingly detached from traditional sources. In every form of information, as it converges on the all encompassing screen of a constantly accessible phone, skepticism is cast on knowledge and preference is given to practicality. Now, there is a concern that the upcoming generations, with divergent views, will converge under the banner of universal discourse and we will witness a constant clash between those who are adept at utilizing information and those who, in the small confines of a collective consciousness, comprehend the symbol of entities in the realm of quantifiable knowledge.

(A) Part.
Q6 Insert idioms into sentences:

a. Elephant in the room:

During the heated discussion on budget cuts, to mention the significant financial challenges faced by the department seems elephant in the room.

d. ~~Castles~~ Castles in the air:

Despite his elaborate plans for a business empire, without practical steps and resources, his dreams remained castles in the air.

e. Crocodile tears:

After the opponent's hypocrisy being exposed by the police, the crocodile tears for sympathy means nothing to Reeshan's family.

i. To have a chip on one's shoulder

Despite his numerous achievements, he still seems to have a chip on his shoulder, always ready to prove himself to others.

C. Burning the midnight oil:

With exams approaching, she has been burning the midnight oil, studying diligently to ensure her success.

Qs (B) Part

- (i) My brother sat with me during the movie and shared his popcorn.
- (ii) The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.
- (v) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.
- (vi) The kids played in until the sun went down.
- (iv) He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Day: _____

Q5 (A) Punctuate the following passage. 24.

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and ~~asked~~ asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, Sir. Our

Biryani is so good it'll make you forget your name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True,

if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan,

humor and hospitality go hand in hand

making every meal an unforgettable experience.

24. Correct any Five of the Following.

5. I wish I could go back to earlier times.

8. Not only Sir Majid grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but, he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

10. I wasn't satisfied with education I recieved from my university, so I took admission in NOA.

4. If there were no bad people, there would ~~be~~ ~~no~~ have been no good lawyers.

Money makes - the more go.

Q6 (B) Part

Heer asked Ranjha where he had been and expressed how much she missed him. Ranjha replied to Heer that he had to travel, but his heart never left her. He inquired about how she had been.

Heer responded to Ranjha that she had been lonely without him and asked him to state details about his journey.

Ranjha explained that it was a quest for self-discovery, wandering through valleys and crossing rivers, but his thoughts were always with Heer.

Heer asked what he had learned on his journey.

Ranjha replied that he had learned the values of struggling and the strength it gives.

Heer said that she had been counting the days until he returned.

Ranjha commented that he had been counting the moments until he could

Day: _____

Date: _____

succeed in his final trials.

Heer said that, let's not dwell on the time they were apart, emphasising that they were together now and that's all that matters.

Ranjha disagreed, stating that exams were near, and he had to leave.

However, he expressed his belief that his success would conquer distance and time.