

QUESTION #4

- 4) If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.
- 5) I wish I could go back to earlier times.
- 6) Sir Majid not only grills a steak for Sir Azhar but also cooks biryani for Sir Shahab.
- 7) Hassan Ali Ghandal would stay rather at home than going to polling station.
- 8) Tahir Sab performed well; it was a beautiful performance.

QUESTION #5

Part A:

Bill Clinton walked into Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir!" "Our biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, in Pakistan, "We don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

PART B:

- (ii) The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase
- (iv) He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later
- (v) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia
- (vi) The kids played in the park ~~at~~ until the sun went down
- (vii) We walked over the bridge to reach the other side of the river

QUESTION 6:

PART A

- (a) Elephant in the room: Everybody suspected the culprit to be outsider. However, reports revealed that it was elephant in the room.
- (b) Burning the midnight oil: He is burning the midnight oil for securing good marks in exam.
- (c) Castles in the air: Instead of building castles in the air, one should take practical steps.

(e) Crocodile fears: As everybody was aware of his cunning nature; therefore, no one believed on his crocodile fears.

(f) Jump on the bandwagon: Instead of jumping on the bandwagon, Pakistan should strengthen its economy for pursuing independent policy.

PART 8:

Heer said to Ranjha where he had been - She <sup>had</sup> missed him so much.

Ranjha replied that he had to travel, Heer, but his heart never left her. Ranjha asked how she had been.

Heer replied that lonely without him. Heer ~~asked~~ asked to tell her about his journey.

Ranjha replied that it <sup>had been</sup> ~~was~~ a quest for self discovery - He <sup>had</sup> wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts <sup>had</sup> ~~were~~ always with her.

Heer asked what he <sup>had</sup> learnt on his journey.

Ranjha said that he had learned the value of struggle and the strength it gave

Heer said that she had been counting the days until his return

Ranjha said that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial

Heer said that let's not dwell on the time apart. They ~~are~~<sup>were</sup> together then, and that's all that matters

Ranjha replied, No, the exams were near. He had to leave. But his success would conquer distance and time

QUESTION 7:

All the degrees are going to be wasted in next 3 years. The advancement in technology, desire of its utility has grown to an extent that our previous knowledge, sources of knowledge and even the syllabus and courses are becoming queer fishes. When the knowledge of every kind is available on the screen of phone of size of palm then skills subordinates knowledge and actions supersedes ideas. Now there are apprehensions that how would those narrating stories from stage could attract their audiences to their speeches and how would teachers teach the secrets of nature to students simultaneously utilizing internet?

QUESTION #2

Judiciary is one of the integral institutes of state that performs various important functions. Independence of judiciary is crucial for provision of justice. Similarly, giving worth to legislative branch is essential for fostering democracy. Citizens and leaders can strengthen legislative branch by upholding democratic principles. Executive is another state's institute that must be respected for its effective functioning. Working in coordination with accountability and responsibility are pre-requisite of sustainable development of nation. It is not only the actions of citizens that demonstrate respect for state's institutes but also the attributes of leaders. Respecting state institution is crucial for democracy. It is the duty of every citizen to strengthen his state institutions through his action & and transform society in a way where ethical principles prevail.

TITLE : WAYS AND IMPORTANCE OF RESPECTING STATE INSTITUTIONS

QUESTION 3:

ANSWER 1:

Hiroo Onoda is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty. During World War II, he was sent to Lubang Island in Philippines on a mission to destroy enemies. ~~However~~ Japan surrendered in WWII but Onoda was unaware of the fact because of disruption ~~in~~ in communication. He kept following the orders for 30 years in jungle unless he was informed unless he was informed by Suzuki that war was over. It is not an easy task to remain in jungle for 30 years while performing the duties. Therefore, he is a beacon of loyalty and strength.

ANSWER 2:

Hiroo Onoda was a Japanese intelligent officer during World War II. In 1944, he was sent to the Lubang Island located in Philippines. He was given the orders to destroy ~~enemies~~ enemy's operation and engage in guerrilla warfare. Therefore, he was sent on a task.

ANSWER 3:

Hiroo Onoda and his unit was sent to Lubang Island in Philippines for an operation. It was a dense jungle. During the operation, he and his unit lost communication with authorities. ~~There~~ Efforts were made to inform them about the changed scenario but everything was proved futile. Therefore, they remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender.

ANSWER 4:

Different types of methods were employed to inform Onoda and his unit but these attempts were unsuccessful. These methods include dropping leaflets from air and televising message from Philippine government. However, they remained unsuccessful because they were either lost due to dense jungle or considered as an enemy's conspiracy to retreat them from their position. Therefore, different attempts were futile.

ANSWER 5:

Almost 3 decades was passed but there were no sign of Hiroo's appearance. His story started gaining popularity and attention. This popular story to leave Jun Leibing in search of Hiroo. He successfully reached to Hiroo's hiding spot. Hiroo, being unaware of changed circumstances, considered Suzuki as an enemy and was ready to attack but Suzuki managed to ~~pro~~ persuade him to believe that ~~the~~ war was over.