Q#2) Precis

The state consists of three fundamental institutions (institutions). The role of judiciary to provide justice to the citizens, guardian of constitution and protects the rights of citizens. The legislative branch represents the voice of the people. It provides open debate environment and explains the legislative procedure which is crucial for a vibrant democracy. The executive branch implements the laws and policies. The citizen must trust to the capabilities of govt officials that they work transparently and ethically. These attributes promotes the good governance, sustainable development and progress. To give respect to the state institutions is not a societal obligation but it is main function of democracy.

It is the duty of every citizen to give importance to the state institution for the justice, equality and progress of society.

Punctuate the following passage.

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, do you have biryani?

The waiter grinned, of course, Sir. Our biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name! Bill laughed, I hope not. I need that for the Imran!

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, in Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up room! Bill replied, true, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco part! They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand; making every man an unforgettable experience.
