

Q NO: 2

ANSWER: TITLE:

PILLARS OF DEMOCRACY: UPHOLDING
AND ENHANCING STATE INSTITUTION

Respecting state institution, particularly the judiciary, legislative, and executive branches, is foundational for a thriving democracy. The judiciary serves as guardian justice, ensuring citizen's rights through unbiased interpretation of law and dispute resolution. Similarly, acknowledging the role of the legislative branch and upholding parliamentary processes is vital for democracy's vibrancy. The executive branch, entrusted the implementing policies, thrives on citizen's trust in ethical government. Leaders specially political figures must exemplify transparent and accountable conduct to inspire public confidence. Upholding state institution is not just a societal duty. It forms the bedrock of a functional democracy, contributing to a nation's strength and resilience. As citizens, recognizing and enhancing these institutions is crucial for a society marked by justice, equality and progress.

Q. NO: 5 (A)      ANSWER

Bill Clinton walked into Karachi restaurant, and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, Sir. Our biryani is so good it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for Imran!" Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.
