

LMS: 31858

Part - IIQuestion No. 2

Topic: "Respect of institutions is a way to Progress"

Being a fundamental institution for securing the rights of citizens, the judiciary should be independent for fair legal proceedings.

Owing to the duties of judiciary, the public and their leaders must be submissive before it. Likewise, legislature raises the public's voice; therefore, respecting the parliamentary institutions and the governing bodies is mandatory for a good democracy and collective legislation. It ~~is~~ results in the democracy with fair accountability.

The executive also demands respect and trust of citizens for efficient working.

Moreover, good governance and the nation's progress lie in appropriate working of the institutions. Due to higher responsibilities, the leaders should be the role models, by having good qualities, of public in respecting institutions, which is a demand of functioning democracy.

Strengthened nation demands rule of law, independent judiciary, and accountability; that's why, the citizens should undermine their moral obligations for society's progress.

Total words Count = 360

Precis words count = 130

Question No.3

(1)

Hiroo is considered as a symbol of and loyalty because during the World War II, he was sent on a mission to Lubang ~~Island~~ <sup>Island</sup>. Despite getting ~~disconnected~~ disconnected from Japan due to war's destruction, he still remained on the mission for three decades and refused ~~the~~ all the messages, until getting the confirmation from the higher-ranking officer. This depicts his persistence, loyalty and spirit. Therefore, he is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty.

(2)

During the World War II, in 1944, Onoda was sent on a mission to Lubang Island in the Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

(3)

When the war ended in 1945 and Japan surrendered, Onoda along with his unit found themselves isolated due to the ~~cut~~ cut off from communication. Due to which they remain unaware about Japan's defeat.

(4)

After the ending of war, Onoda and his comrades continued the operation because they loss the communication with their officers. Over the year, attempt were made to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the war's end. Leaflets were dropped, messages were broadcasted by the Philippine government but Onoda ~~to~~ and his companions ~~believed~~ <sup>thought</sup> that it might be the tricks of enemy. They could not convinced other than the commands of their higher-ranking officers. That's why these attempt remain unsuccessful.

(5)

After the three decades of Onoda's mission, Norio Suzuki, a young adventurer, ventured into the jungles of Lubang with a mission to find "Lieutenant Onoda". On finding Onoda, he tried to convince him but Onoda watched Suzuki suspiciously. Suzuki was persistent and even he found ~~Onoda's~~ <sup>former Senior commanding officer</sup> to command Onoda that the war has over. Major Yoshimi Taniguchi, the former commanding officer of Onoda, flew to Lubang to convince him. These challenges were faced by Suzuki to convince Onoda that the war had ended.

Question No. 4

(4)

If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

(5)

I wish I could go back to the earlier times.

(8)

Not only Sir Majid grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

(9)

Tahir Sab performed well; it was a magnificent & beautiful performance.

(3)

They had a wonderful time, and luckily none of them was injured.

Question No.5

(a) part

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, Sir! Our Biryani is so good; it will make you forget your own name."

Bill laughed, "I hope not, I need that for Imran." Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need ~~than~~ candles. Our Biryani alone can light up the room." Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party." They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

(B) part

(i)

My brother sat with me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

(ii)

The car jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.

(iii)

We walked ~~on~~ through the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

(iv)

He hid the gift under the ~~table~~ bed to surprise his sister later.

(v)

The book is on the shelf's right next to the encyclopedia.

Question No. 7

All the degrees are going to be worthless in the upcoming three year. Both the speed of technology and the curiosity of benefiting from it are fast enough that our previous information, sources of informations, even the curriculum and subjects, all are getting aside. When every information ~~is~~ <sup>the screen of</sup> accessible on a hand-size ~~de~~ mobile on palm's surface then skill overcome the knowledge and practicality overcome thinking. Now, the fear is hanging what will the preachers do to ~~search~~ seek attention of the listeners toward their preachings, and how the teachers will teach the world realities in the carbon-like classroom to the all-time internet learners.

---

Question NO.6

(B) part.

Heer asked Ranjha that where he had been. She had missed him so much.

Ranjha replied that he had to travel but his heart never left her. How she has been?

Heer said that lonely without him, and asked to tell her about his journey.

Ranjha said that it was a quest for self-discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were always with her.

Question 6

(a) part.

Crocodile tears: He was weeping with crocodile tears over the misconduct he committed a day before.

Burning the midnight oil:

He has no enough resources but he is burning the midnight oil to get his children educated.

Castles in the air:

His opinion is immature enough that he ~~is~~ is building castle in the air.