

Q=2

Title: Strong state institutions: A backbone of democracy.

Judiciary is a strong pillar of a state. It maintains not only rule of law but also ensures the rights of the citizen by setting independent legal system. Citizen must respect judiciary. In the same way, parliament is the corner stone of an ideal democratic setup, which makes laws being the representative of people. Moreover, executive branch ensure the execution of policies and laws. Transparent and strong state institutions lay down the foundation of economic sustainable economic development. Similarly, citizens and the political leaders are the protector of a strong vibrant democratic system. Trust in state institution, transparency, strong judicial setup, and sense of equality are the pillar of a independent nation. Citizens must abide by the rule of law and adhere to the cannon of a justice to enjoy the equal opportunities.

Q = 2

1. Why is Hiroo considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty?

Hiroo considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because of his unwavering belief in Japan's strength. He continued his mission despite Japan's defeat. He continued his mission almost 30 years in jungles of Philippine, setting himself as a testament of loyalty.

2. In what location was Onoda sent with orders during World War II, and what were his specific instructions?

Ans: Onoda was sent to carry out a guerrilla warfare in Lubang Island of Philippine. His mission was to destroy enemy operation.

Q: 3 Why did Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945?

Ans: Because of disruption of communication, they remained isolated from the world affairs.

So they were unaware from of Japan's surrender in 1945, they continued their operation till 1974.

Q: 4 What efforts were made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of the war, why were these attempts unsuccessful?

Ans: Many efforts were made to make Onoda and his men aware. Pamphlet were dropped ^{and} Philippine government delivered messages about the defeat of Japan. But these attempt bec remained futile as they Onoda and his men considered these messages as enemy's trick to trap them.

Q: 5.

Ans: Suzuki set on Lubang's adventure to search for Onoda. He tried his best to convince Lim, he brought Onoda's former commander Major Yoshimi Taiqueh to make Onoda believe. Despite Tanguchi's order, Onoda was not reluctant to surrender. Moreover, he sought permission from higher rank and he also returned to Japan and brought official order from Japan's government to believe Onoda about the ended war.

Q: 5 Punctuate the following Passage

Ans: Bill Clinton walked into Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, Sir. Our 'Biryani' is so good; it will make you forget your own name." Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need it for Imran! Later, during a power, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candle; our biryani alone can light up the room." Bill replied, "True, if you add some spicy chutney, we might had a 'Disco Party'." They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, "Humour and hospitality go hand in hand"; making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Q-4 Correct any five:-

1 Hasan Ali Gondaal would stay at home rather than going to polling station.

(4) If there were not bad people, there would not have good lawyers.

(3) I wish, I could go back to the ancient time.

(8) Sir Majid grill not only a steak but also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

(10) I was not satisfied with the education I received from university, So I took admission in NOA.

B- Rewrite Re-write

- (i) My brother sat beside me during movie and shared his popcorn.
- (ii) The cat jumped over the table and knocked over the vase.
- (iii) We walked across the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
- (iv) He hid the gift under the table to surprise his sister later.
- (v) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.

Q-6 Idioms

Ans: (a) Burning the midnight oil.

One can not be successful until he burns the midnight oil.

(d) Castle in the air:

To plan a business without being financially independent is like casting in the air.

(e) Crocodile tears:

Nazia deceived him by shedding crocodile tears, hidden she was happy on his accident.

(f) Jumped on the bandwagon:

∴ Pakistan's foreign policy had been jumping on the bandwagon since its inception.

DATE: _____

M T W T F S

(h) Skelton in the closet:

Every political leader in Pakistan has skelton in the closet, in the form of corruption.

Q = 7 Translation.

In the coming three years, all the degrees are going to be worthless. The pace of AI and the quest to acquire it, is so fast that our previous knowledge, our all sources of information, syllabus, even subject of studies are going to be irrelevant. Skill ~~become~~ overthrows the knowledge and action lead over + imagination when all kind of knowledge become available in a handful of mobile screen. It is a potential threat that how will speakers influence the listeners with their speech, and how will teachers deliver the lesson on astronomy to their students who will be acquainted to internet.