

- 1) Hassan Ali Qandil would rather stay at home, than go to the polling station.
- 2) Advocate Malik Huzefa always looks for inspiration but none ever comes.
- 3) They had a wonderful time and luckily no one was injured.
- 4) If there were no bad people, there would be no bad lawyers.
- 5) I wish I could go back to earlier times.

(A) Bill Clinton walked into a Kasabi restaurant and asked the waiter, "do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "of course sir, our biryani is so good it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran!" Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan we don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True! and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand making every meal an unforgettable experience.

- B) i) The cat jumped ON the table and knocked the vase.
ii) We walked OVER the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
iii) He hid the gift UNDER the bed to surprise his sister later.
iv) The plane flew ABOVE the clouds, offering a breathtaking views.
v) My brother sat BESIDE me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

106d) Jump on the bandwagon:-

With every new trend, Gen Z are the first one to jump on the bandwagon.

b) Elephant in the room:-

During the meeting the boss ignored to address the elephant in the room.

d) As exams come closer, every student has been burning the midnight oil.

d) Politicians use 'cocodile tears' for the poor during their election campaign.

e) There is always a skeleton in the closet, when we dig into family history.

106 (B) Heer asked Ranjha where he had been and expressed how much she had missed him. He replied that he had to travel but his heart never left her. He asked about her, to which she responded that she had been lonely without him, asking him to share his journey. Ranjha explained his journey was a quest to self discovery, wandering through valleys and crossing rivers with Heer in his thoughts. Heer questioned what he had learnt from his journey, and Ranjha told that he had learnt the value of struggle and the strength it gives. Heer expressed how she had been counting the days of his return, and Ranjha told that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial. Heer suggested not dwelling on the time apart as they are together now, and that's what mattered. However, Ranjha stated that his exams were near and that he had to leave. Expressing how his success will conquer distance and time.

Q7: All degrees in the upcoming three years will go in vain. The speed of technology and the world's urge to gain its benefit is so much so that our previous ways of gaining knowledge through courses and Essays have become irrelevant. When every kind of information is accessible in ~~phones~~ the phone people carry in their hands. Then skill overtakes knowledge and acts overtake the ability to think. Now the pace is coming to an extent that the people who used to read stories to the audience, how will they teach them about ~~and~~ the world. And this how will the teachers teach their students about the universe in a small room who are always gaining from the internet?

Q01:- Hiroo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because he was sent to disrupt enemy operations during world war II. Unfortunately the war turned against Japan and Hiroo with his unit were found isolated. After the war ended the Philippines government threw leaflets and broadcasted messages of the war being over, but Hiroo and his men considered it as a enemy trick. They remained steadfast and continued on with their operation until he was found.

Q02:- Onada was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines during world war II. His specific instructions were to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

Q03:- Onada and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 due to lack of communication. The dense jungle where the unit was operating in made it hard for them to receive information. Despite attempts by the Philippines government by sending leaflets and broadcasting messages, the soldiers considered it as enemy tactics. Thus, all efforts went in vain.

Q04:- Over the years there were various attempts made to contact the unit (but) by the Philippines government by sending in leaflets and broadcasting messages to the dense forest. But the unit denied to believe the messages sent towards them. As they thought it was a part of the enemy's plan. Therefore, the dense jungle and the distrust of the soldiers led towards no communication.

Q05:- Norio Suzuki went on an adventure, with a mission to find Lieutenant Onada. During the adventure Suzuki came across Onada's hiding spot.

Onada eyed Suzuki, as Suzuki posed the challenge to convince Onada that the war was over, but Onada kept being skeptical until Suzuki went and brought Onada's former commanding officer, to call him off duty. Thus, on March 9, 1974, Lieutenant Hiroo Onada came out of the jungle.

Title: State Institutions: Pillars of Democracy.

In a democratic system, the judiciary serves as a prime state institution, which safeguards justice, interprets laws and upholds citizens rights. Standing by its independence is necessary for a fair legal system. Likewise, the legislative branch represents the people, grows an respect quiver to the parliamentary institutes and representatives. Open debates and sticking to procedures bring a robust democratic process. The executive branch demands unwavering respect for policy implementation. Trust leads towards sustainable development. Therefore, leaders must show transparent government, decision making and accountability. Respecting state institutions is not a societal obligation but the pillar of democracy. Citizens play a pivotal role in recognizing, contributing and building the state institutes.