Q. 05

A Punctuate:

When I look upon the tombs of the great, every emotion of envy dies in me; when I read the epitaphs of the beautiful, every inordinate desire goes out; when I meet with grief of parents upon a tombstone, my heart melts with compassion; when I see the tomb of the parents themselves, I consider the vanity for those whom we must quickly follow.

B. Rewrite the dialogue

John asked Collins whether he had heard about Alex, who had been denied the manager position. Collins expressed surprise and disbelief, and asked the reason behind it as according to him he was perfect for it. John told him that they said Alex lacked experience, which he considered total nonsense. Collins expressed disbelief and asked whether Alex had talked to them.

John said in the affirmative that he had got the usual round.

Collins suggested gaining team support as it was a time for the statement. John praised the decision as good one and emphasized the importance of Alex as worthy one for the candidacy and further assured that fully supportive of him.

Question no. 07

Translate into English

Allah Almighty has blessed Pakistan with plenty of mineral wealth. It is necessary to extract these minerals from the earth through mining, manufacture products from them, and generate foreign exchange by selling them in the global markets. Similarly, instead of exporting agriculture products, the focus should be on producing goods from them so that higher prices can be gained and more employment opportunities can be created. However, while producing these products, the international standards, uniqueness and innovation should be considered so that we can achieve self reliance and independency. Economically strong and prosperous Pakistan reflects the ideology of self-reliance proposed by Jinnah and Iqbal.
