

PART - I.QUESTION # 01. SYNONYMS.

- i- Tute. — Hackney
- ii- Luird — Limpid.
- iii- Dubious. — Uncertain
- iv- Reverse — Exalt
- v- Reprimand. — Criticism
- vi- Fawn — Flatter.
- vii- Idiosyncrasy — Conformity
- viii- Voracious. — Apathetic
- ix- Recluse — Introvert
- x- Equanimity — Calmness.

QUESTION # 02 # ANTONYMS

- i- Transgression — Conformity
- ii- Enervate — Energize
- iii- Flout — Accept
- iv- Coagulate — dilute
- v- Daunt — Encourage
- vi- Bolster — weaken
- vii- Amalgamate — separate

- 8- Propitious. - hopeless.
9- Prodigious. - Hastening.
10- Intimidate. - Encourage.
-

QUESTION # 04 :

CORRECTION.

- i- While waiting for the train a
~~the~~ brick fell on my foot.
~~the~~
~~in~~
- 2- Although, it was raining, we went to market.
- 3- This is a univue dress
- 4- He needs a car for his daily activities.
- 5- We enjoy walking after dinner.
-

QUESTION # 05

PUNCTUATION.

When I look upon the tombs of the great, every emotion of envy dies in me. When I read the epitaphs of the beautiful, every inordinate desire goes out. When I meet with the grief of parents upon a tombstone, my heart melts with compassion. When I see the tomb of the parents themselves, I consider the vanity of grieving for those whom we must quickly follow.

QUESTION # 06: Idioms.

i- By the book

Meaning: According to rules

Sentence: Ali prefers to go by the book while dealing with all social and legal matters.

ii- In the balance:

Meaning: Refers to a situation when the outcome is uncertain.

Sentence: The fate of the project is in the balance, while the jury has not decided yet.

iii- Below the belt:

Meaning: Unfair, inappropriate behavior.

Sentence: Seema's behavior with her husband is quite below the belt, while arguing.

iv- Bound up in

Meaning: Being so much busy in something.

Sentence:

She is so bound up in her work that she rarely has time for anything.

B. Pair of Words.

1. Object, Abject.

Object, (A thing) / an aim,

We should not be passive in our object.

Abject: (wretched, miserable)

She is living in abject poverty.

2. Amiable, Amicable

Amicable: Peaceable, friendly way

We should settle disputes with our classfellows in an amicable way.

Amiable: (Kind)

I have always found my grandfather so amiable person.

3. Averse, Adverse.

Averse: opposed

He is opposed to staying out late night.

Adverse: Unfavourable

The weather is adverse for journey.

4. Elicit, Illicit:

Elicit: draw away, infer.

From her response, it is <sup>difficult to</sup> elicit where she is coming in the party.

Illicit: unlawful.

Earning money from illicit means could cause him trouble.

5. Especially, specially.

Especially: Above all, <sup>in particular</sup>.

He is especially hungry.

Specially: specifically, purposely.

I made trifle <sup>for you</sup> specially for you.

---

QUESTION # 07

TRANSLATION:

Allah <sup>Almighty</sup> has blessed Pakistan with immense mineral wealth. It is imperative that we utilize those minerals, extracting them out through mining and earn revenue after selling useful goods in international markets. Similarly, instead of merely exporting agricultural produce, we should process them into goods to fetch higher prices and to create more job opportunities.

However, international standards, individuality and innovation must be maintained while preparing these goods so that we do not depend upon others. A prosperous and financially strong Pakistan is the true embodiment of the vision of Jinnah and Jafar.

QUESTION # 03

PASSAGE IS QUESTION.

1. Main goal of AI research and how it is defined in computer science?

1.

The main goal of AI is to do the tasks of cognitive functioning, such as problem solving and learning, through machines. ~~that~~ AI wants to do such tasks that has not been done yet by humans. In computer science, it is usually defined as the study of intelligent machines that maximize chances of success in their functioning and immitate human intelligence.

2. The AI effect is a rising phenomena which ~~excludes certain~~ common tasks of character recognition from the definition of AI. It focuses on modern innovative tasks, such as understanding human speech.

2. The AI effect is a rising phenomena which excludes traditional tasks of character recognition from the definition of AI. This phenomenon constantly shifts the definition of AI as technology progresses.

3. Since 1956, the history of AI has been gone through hopes, disappointments, successes, fundings and non-fundings. Besides, the sub-fields of AI has also gone through miscommunication.

4. Some of the traditional problems of AI research are reasoning, knowledge representation, planning, learning, language processing, perceptions, <sup>and</sup> ability to move and manipulate objects. The areas covered by AI are computer science, mathematics, psychology, linguistics <sup>and</sup> philosophy.

---

QUESTION # 03.

PRELIS.

Title: The Future of Oratory: A Reflection on Decline and Legacy

The passage contemplates the uncertain future of oratory, noting a decline in its practice compared to ancient times. While ancient orators viewed their craft of oratory as invaluable and modern society shows less dedication to perfecting the art of public speaking. The prevalence of written communication and changes in communication platforms has eclipsed the art of oratory.

Despite this decline, figures like Sir Winston Churchill stand as demanants of the golden age of oratory, demonstrating meticulous care in speech and leaving behind a legacy of profound and ~~memorable~~ memorable addresses for future generations.

---

NARRATION

John informed Collins that he had heard about Alex being denied the manager position. Collins expressed disbelief, questioning why Alex was denied the role as he believed Alex was perfect for it. John replied that they claimed Alex lacked experience, which he considered nonsense. Collins found it unbelievable and asked if Alex had spoken to them. John confirmed that Alex had, but he only received the usual runaround. Collins suggested rallying team support and issuing a statement to show solidarity with Alex. John agreed, acknowledging it was a good call to demonstrate that the team supported Alex and believed that he was the right person for the job.

---