

(Part I)

Question 2

integrity of state institutions; vital for development

Title:

Respecting the state institutions

write complete and self defining title please

Among the state institutions, judiciary needs to be respected. The functions of judiciary consist of protecting and checking law and justice and working as the people's guardian. Its independence must be ensured.

Likewise, the voice of the public is heard through legislature. Parliamentary procedures and citizen's contribution through constructive dialogue determine the strength of legislature.

Moreover, the role of executive is to implement laws and policies.

It is mandatory for public to trust governments' abilities, for they work on the democratic credentials.

Consequently, progress of nation is achieved through better governance. Thus, it is upon leaders to invite respect for state institutions. Hence, the respect of state institution is crucial for democracy.

Total words: 323

Precise words: 111

Question 3

Answer 01

Hiroo Onoda was a Japanese intelligence officer during World War II. He was sent to Philippines to dismantle enemies. Even after the end of war, he continued his mission due to utmost loyalty and dedication. He remained constant for 30 years to follow the mission. ~~His~~ steadfastness and determination, he was considered the symbol of strength and unity.

Answer 02

Onoda was a Japanese intelligence officer during World War II. He was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines. His duty was to distort the enemy of Japan. Moreover, he was also instructed to involve in formulating small independent forces to damage the enemy.

Answer 03

Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines to distort the enemy of Japan. However, despite the defeat of Japan, Onoda and his unit continued their mission because of their isolation and cutting off from communication.

Answer 04

As Onoda continued his spy mission in the Philippines owing to the lost of communication, various attempts were made to inform him about the defeat of Japan. One such attempt was the dropping of leaflets, but he considered it a deceptive tactic by enemy. Similarly, a young adventurer, Norio Suzuki tried to convince him about the end of war. He was reluctant to believe him due to utmost loyalty.

Answer of Norio Suzuki went into the jungles of Luzon to find Onoda. He tried hard to convince him about the end of war. But Onoda saw him with suspicion. Moreover, Suzuki sought the help of Major Yoshimi Taniguchi, Onoda's former commanding officer, to compel Onoda about leaving the mission. However, Onoda's utmost dedication and loyalty to his nation became hurdles, that is why he abandoned his loyal duty after 30 years.

Question 4

5- I wish I ~~would~~ go back to earlier ~~times~~.

8- Sir Mujid not only grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but also ~~cooked~~ biryani for Sir Shahab.

4- If there were no bad people, ~~there~~ would be no good lawyers.

2- Advocate Malik Huzaiifa always looks for inspiration, but none ~~comes~~.

1- Hassan Ali Gondal would rather ~~stay~~ at home than go to polling station.

Question 5 (A)

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir. Our biryani is so good. It'll make you forget your own name." Bill laughed, "I hope not. I need that for Imran." Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, in Pakistan, we don't need candles. Our biryani alone can light up the room. Bill replied, True! and if you add some spicy chutney, we might have a disco party." They both chuckled realizing that, in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand making every meal an unforgettable experience.

(B)

- ii- Onto
- v- On
- vi- in
- vii- Over
- iv- Under

write in complete sentence form please

Question 7

attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner please

All degrees are going to be worthless within next three years. The advancement of technology and the urge to take benefit from it is so fast that all prior knowledge ^{and even} books are going to be outdated. When every kind of information comes in our hand in the form of mobile phone, then skills overcome knowledge, and actions become dominant over imagination. It is a growing concern that how people from a minarate address the spectators, and how teachers teach students in a small room in the presence of internet?