

Traditional Family Structures Cannot Bear Challenges Of Modern World.

Outline

I- Introduction

Thesis Statement: "Traditional family structures are more confined to family values and less focused upon the modern challenges of world."

II- Why Traditional Families cannot bear the challenges of Modern World.

III- Challenges of Modern World

- (a) Economic deterioration (inflation)
- (b) Uncertainty of jobs (leading to unemployment)
- (c) New modes of earning
- (d) Social and cultural shifts
- (e) Scarcity of resources.
- (f) Survival of fittest a reality

IV- Traditional Family Structures not suitable for Modern world

- (a) Joint family system
- (b) Patriarchal values of the family
- (c) Resistance to new modes of Earning
- (d) Role of Women confined to houses.
- (e) Less awareness of education.

V- How to cope up with Challenges of modern world.

- (a) Adoption of nuclear family structures.
- (b) Involvement of women in economic spheres
- (c) Adoption of new means of earning
- (d)

U r quite relevant

VI Conclusion

The Example of China's family system.
American family structure.
3rd world countries stucked to the traditional family life.