Precis Writing

Respect for State Institutions

Judiciary which interprets laws and upholds justice is one of the main state institutions and must be respected by all. Likewise, parliament which represents the will of people, must be respected and used as a discussion forum to strengthen democracy. Similarly, executive branch must also be respected so that it can implement state policies transparently. State institutions must work together to ensure progress.

Alongside citizens, the political leaders must work and act in accordance with the guidelines of these institutions.

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course sir, our biryani is so good it'll make you forget your name." Bill laughed, "I hope not, I need that for later." During a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan we don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room." Bill replied, "True, and if you eat some spicy Chumney, you might even have a disco party." They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.
