Day of Judgment

Ans

Introduction:

Day of Judgment occupies a central place in the doctrine of Islam. It is the day when all human beings will present before Allah Almighty, and they will be held responsible for their actions and rewarded or punished for their actions. Ala Abu, Mawdudi in his book, 'Towards Understanding Islam,' writes that All humans will die, this is the Qayam (the last day) and after that, they will be resurrect, that is called Hashr (the day of the Judgment). Moreover, Day of Judgment has a profound impact on human life. Let's take a detailed view of impacts of day of Judgment on human life at individual life and at collective life.

(1) Impacts of Day of Judgment at individual life:

Day of Judgment

has considerable impact on individual life - Some of them are given below.

(i) Sense of Responsibility and Accountability

Day of Judgment makes people conscious of their choices in life - They know that they will be held responsible for every action in this world in hereafter. The Quran says, "Allah will hold every soul in pledge for its actions".

(ii) Reward and Compensation;

On the day of Judgment, people will be rewarded who do good deeds and punished if they ^{have} done bad deeds. As the Holy prophet (PBUH) said, "This world is seedbed of hereafter, whatever you sow here will reap in hereafter".

(iii) Give purpose in life:

Day of Judgment
ect a t morning purpose in life which is to please and worship Allah. The Quran says, "We have created Jinn and Insan nothing but worship Me (Allah)."

(iv) Moral compass for people.

Day of Judgment and fear of accountability make people moral perfect and they exhibit good moral in every action they take.

(v) Make ^{people} humble and Modest.

Day of Judgment make people humble and modest because they know that Allah dislikes pride. The Quran says, "He who has a pride equivalent to grain of wheat or sand will not enter Paradise."

"All Muslims are Brothers".

(ii) Spirit of Cooperation and mutual consensus:

Day of Judgment
inspires spirit of cooperation and mutual agreement in the doing of good deeds and prohibition bad deeds. The Glorious Quran says, "Cooperate with each other in good deeds and do not cooperate in bad deeds".

(iii) Creation of equality among people.

Day of Judgment
enable people to view other fellow beings as the creatures of Allah and this helps in creation of more equal society.

(v) Promotion of social justice:

believers, bearing Day of Judgment, promote social justice because Allah loves just people." The Quran says, "Allah commends fair dealings and Justice"

(vi) More harmony and peace in society:

Day of Judgment rejuvenates the spirit of cooperation and mutual agreement. This, in turn creates a peace and harmony in society. It discourages social injustices, inequalities and discrimination from the society.

Conclusion:

Day of Judgment is a revolutionary concept in Islam. It gives people hope and satisfaction in this life because their actions will be judged in the life hereafter and they will be compensated if they do good deeds and they will be punished for their bad deeds. This belief has a profound impact on human life both at individual level as well as at collective level.

Q3

Zakat and Sedket

Ans

Introduction:

Zakat is one of the basic pillars of Islam. It is the first secular tax on the rich and middle class while the poor are exempt from it. Earlier, taxes were levied on the whims of kings, overburdening the poor classes. In Islam, Zakat is mandatory only on those who can afford it. The system of Zakat is at the heart of Islam. The significance of Zakat can be gauged from the fact that Hazrat Abu (R.A) waged Jihad against tribes which refused to pay Zakat.

i) Significance of Zakat and Sedket in the Quran and Hedith.

The Quran says, "Take thus of their wealth and make them purify."

The Quran says, "Pay regular tax and bow down with those who bow down."

(2) The system of Zakat in Islam.

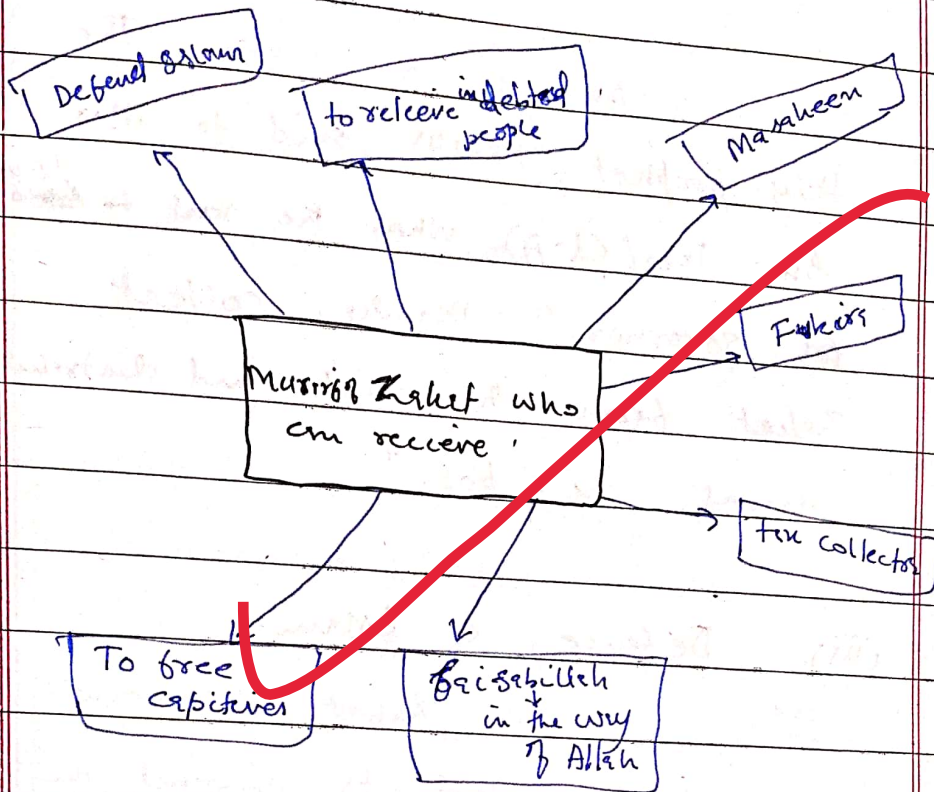

Zakat is mandatory on those things which are accumulated over year or so. Its rate is around 2.5 percent of the value of things.

The following paragraph will discuss Nisab and Musarif of Zakat.

(4) Nisab of Zakat in Islam.

Things	Amount
Gold	7½ tolas
