

NOA Mock

TALAL JOUSAF

Q2

PRECIS:

Judiciary — arbitrator and interpreter of law — and Legislative — voice of the people — are two vital organs of state, where the former ensures justice, while the latter, through healthy debates, provides a necessary legislation. Executive branch — which is implementor of laws and policies, is also an important state pillar. All these three organs, due to their vital role, must be protected and respected, so that they continuously play their due role in a society's coordinated work of these organs, coupled when with their due accountability, improves the countries governance and brings sustainable development there. However, the responsibility of their respect not lies on citizens only, but on leaders too. Leaders must show commitments in preserving the principles that are necessary for forging public trust in state institutions.

It is not only a societal obligation, but a very prerequisite for any vibrant democracy, which in turn adds to the resilience of nation. So, citizens have the responsibility to play due role in this regard titles

"Guardians of Democracy" Upholding the respect for state institutions

Q3:-

A1) Hiroo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because of his steadfastness in his duty. For almost 30 years, he ~~remains~~ <sup>performs</sup> in his duty in the dense jungle with great discipline. Thus despite the changing world around him, Hiroo's resilience and unwavering loyalty made him a symbol of loyalty and strength.

Ans 2) Onado was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines during the World War II. The specific instructions that were

were given to him, are:
to disrupt the enemy operations. Further, he was instructed to engage the enemy with guerrilla ways with him.

In composition answer each question comprehensively.
Do not be irrelevant in your answer.
Please enhance length of each answer.
Read the passage carefully.

Ans 3:-

Onoda and his unit remained isolated because of the communication cut off, due to which they were also unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945.
As, they have no means of communication and they progressed themselves towards jungle, which is very much dense, they remain isolated there and remains unaware of the shifting geopolitical landscape.

Ans 4: The efforts that were made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of war, were the dropping of leaflets in the dense jungle and the Phillipine's government broadcasting the message "that the war is over". These attempts were unsuccessful due to the dense foliage in forest and the soldier's skepticism, deeming these messages as the tricks played by enemy to distract them. Thus these two reasons had thwarted all the efforts that were made to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of war.

Ano 5 :- Norio Suzuki became involved in the Onoda's story, when ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> story of Hiro famous. Suzuki was a young! adventurer, after hearing this story, he took a mission of funding the "Lieutenant Onoda". The challenge he faced in convincing Onoda to believe that the war had ended was that, Hiro Onoda was suspicious and hesitant in laying down his arms.

Q4:

- a) Hassan Ali Gonda would rather stay at home than go to the polling station
- b) Money makes the man go
- c) Advocate Malik Huzafa always looks for inspiration
, but none ever comes.
- d) Tanir Sab performed well;
it was a magnificent and beautiful performance
- e) They had a wonderful time and luckily no one was injured.

Ans

5.

~~Punctuation~~ Prepositions

- ① He walked across the bridge to reach the other side of river.
- 2) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.
- 3) The kid played in the park until the sun went down.
- ④ The cat jumped onto the table and knuckle.
- ⑤ We gathered around the campfire to share stories.

PUNCTUATION:

Q 5-A Punctuation

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant, and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir. Our biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not!; I need that for the imran!"

Later, during the power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!"

Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience

Q-6

Idioms

① Jump on the bandwagon:

Turncoats, on realizing that tides are not in their favours, jumps on the bandwagon of opposition alliance.

2) Castles in the air.

If one is sure enough that he ~~can~~ pass CSS exam, without writing dozen of essays then he is merely doing building a castles in the air.

e) Crocodile tears :-

His tears on his brother's loss, is nothing more than the crocodile tears

a) Elephant in the room :-

Loss making enterprises are nothing but an elephant in the room to Pakistan's economy

c) Burning the midnight oil

~~My burning the midnight oil efforts of passing essay paper, proves very insignificant after today's mock paper.~~

Rewrite the passage.

Heer asked Ranjha where he had been and expressed how much she had missed him. On which Ranjha replied that he had to travel and his heart never left him. How had you been. Heer replied she is lonely without her, and asked to tell her about his journey.

Ranjha said it was a quest for a self-discovery.
Ranjha - -

TRANSLATION:

Translation

All degrees in the up next three years are going to be useless. The pace of technology - and the desire to benefit from it - is such a swift, that our previous information sources even curriculum, and courses; all are becoming irrelevant. When all types of information, comes <sup>available</sup> in the "palm size" screen of mobile phone, then skill overcomes the knowledge and practicality gets priority over thinking. Now the danger that is lurking is, that in the upcoming days, those telling the stories attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner please

Translation

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner Focus on grammar please Do not attempt word by word from proper mats, how they can get their the attention of their listeners?

And <sup>to</sup> the students, that all the times ~~the~~ <sup>gets</sup> benefiting from the internet, how ~~can~~ can teach them, in a teacher small rooms, the mystics of universe?

