

GENERAL KNOWLEDGE

III

PAKISTAN AFFAIRS

QUESTION 2

Only outlines not needed
Insufficient length
Insufficient headings
Add references

Explain the services of Shah Waliullah and Sheikh Ahmed Sirhandi. How these reformers impacted the history. Discuss.

Answer

Introduction :-

Shah Waliullah was born in 1703 was a pivotal figure in muslim history he took many reforms for Muslims. He was a renowned muslim scholar, Jurist and social reformers from Delhi, Mughal India. He promoted rational interpretation of Quran and Hadith through Herod. He emphasis on importance of social Justice and political awareness. His writing influenced numerous Islamic movements and thinkers in the subcontinent. He died on 1762.

Sheikh Ahmed Sirhindī was born in 1564. He was also known as Alf-i-Sani (Reformer of second millennium). A prominent Sufi scholar from Sirhind. Emphasized on inner purification and adherence to Quran and Sunnah. He influenced the Mughal Emperor Jahangir and shaped religious policies of Aurangzeb. His teaching had a lasting impact on South Asian Islam, inspiring future reform movements. He died in 1624.

Religious Reforms

Both religious scholars took a lot of reforms to change the thoughts of people. Some of them are:

Revival of Islam:-

Both aimed to purify Islam from bidāh (innovation) and revive its spiritual core. Sirhindī emphasized inner purification through "Mujahadat" (spiritual struggle) while waliullah focus on rational understanding of Quran and sunnah. This influenced movements like the Deobandi movement in the 19th century. And many reforms like this.

Emphasis on Sufism:-

Recognizing the popularity of Sufism, both figures sought to reform it from within. Sirhindī emphasized on "Ishq-e-Haqiqi" (true love for God) over ostentatious practices, while Shah Wali Ullah advocated for integrating Sufism with Islamic law and ethical teaching. This impacted the development of Sufi orders like Naqshbandīya and Chishtīya.

of Social Reforms :-

Education &

Both emphasized the importance of education, advocating for universal access to knowledge. Shah Wali Ullah established the Madrasa Rahimiyā, while Sirhindī focused on reforming the existing madrassas. This contributed to the spread of Islamic education and intellectual discourse.

Women's Rights &

Recognizing the marginalized status of women, both advocated for their education and participation in religious life. Wallī Ullah wrote tracts arguing for their rights to the influence and education, influencing future Muslim Feminists.

Political advocacy :-

Both believed in active engagement with political matters. Sishindi influenced Mughal Emperor Jahangir towards Islamic principles, while Shah-Wali-Ullah criticized the declining Mughal state and called for social justice. Their ideas later inspired movements like the one Khilafat movement.

+ Impact on subcontinent :-

Thoughts of both these leaders left a great impact on the Muslims of subcontinent. It changed their perspective and view of looking upon things.

Renewal of Muslim Identity :-

Their reforms help consolidate a distinct Muslim identity in the subcontinent, offering a sense of unity and purpose of amidst political turmoil.

Resistance to colonialism &

The emphasis on social Justice and political awareness laid the groundwork for future anti-colonial movements, influencing leaders like Syed Ahmed Khan and Allama Iqbal. The latter leaders continued to walk on the foot steps once created by these two leaders.

Modern Islamic discourse &

Their writings on Jurisprudence, theology and social issues continued to be debated and interpreted, shaping contemporary Islamic discourse in the sub continent and beyond. The thoughts they have created were not left behind and other scholars continued to work on them.

Limitations &

While acknowledging their immense contribution it is important to also consider their limitation. Some critics point to their focus on orthodoxy and their view on gender, which might not resonate with all modern interpretations for Islam. They think their view was not broad enough to coordinate with modern world.

Conclusion &

In conclusion Shah Waliullah and Sheikh Ahmed Sirhindi stands as towering figure in the history of the subcontinent leaving an indelible mark on Muslim intellectual and clerical life. While separated by nearly a century their complementary efforts aimed towards a common goal re-invigorating Islam and guiding the muslim through the period of political and social turbulence. Their impact can not be overstated. They <sup>not</sup> only renewed Muslim identity during Mughal decline but also laid ground work for resistance against colonization and shaped the discourse of modern Islam in the region.

QUESTION 6

The Constitution of 1973 - 50 years.

ANSWER:

Pakistan's recent constitution came into force on 14 August 1973. The 50th Constitution presents an opportunity of opportunity to reflect on the progress and challenges faced in achieving national integration, fostering a shared identity and strengthening democratic values.

National Integration

Successes	challenges	lessons
It established a framework of unified Pakistani nation, recognizing diversity while promoting national unity through symbol.	Ethnic, linguistic and sectarian division persist hindering complete integration. uneven development of marginalized across regions and to resources.	continued efforts are needed to address grievance group, Promote intra provincial harmony and ensure equal distribution of resources.

* National Identity *

Successes

The constitution provide a multi-

challenges

The struggle to

Lessons

open and inclusive

define and recon- dialogue about faced Pakistani file various aspects national identity is identity. Encompasses of Pakistani identity important. Emphasizing Islam, democracy and particularly the role shared values for religious culture. of religion continues. diversity can foster
national identity.

* Development of democratic values *

Successes

The constitution established a

challenges

lesson

parliamentary democracy with the has been uneven fundamental rights with periods of in- and freedom. The stability and political and accountable, judiciary has played interference. Corruption governance are very a vital role in weak rule of law upholding constitutional principles and intolerance for dissent remain challenges.

Looking Forward 8

Pakistan can resolve remaining challenges

by :-

Promoting inclusive dialogue

Investing in education and H.E.

Addressing socio-economic disparities

Strengthening institutions and upholding rule of law

The road ahead holds both opportunities and obstacles. Embracing dialogue, inclusivity and a commitment to progress very essential in guiding Pakistan towards a better future where national integration, identity and democratic values become beacons of strength and unity.

---