

Q. Read the Passage?

1- Why is Hiroo considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty?

Hiroo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because he remained loyal to his duty despite changing in geopolitical dynamics around him. He fulfilled his commitment towards his country. He did not leave the position until he got confirmation from high authorities.

2- In what location was Onoda sent with orders during World War II, and what were his specific instructions?

Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines with order to eyed on rivals, their movements and plans. It was also instructed to engage with them in guerrilla warfare.

3- What did Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945?

Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender because they lost communication from the country and remained in the dense jungles in order to fulfill their mission. Instead of responding to messages from ~~Japan's~~ government later, they ignored them as they thought it was a trick of enemies to capture them.

4. What efforts were made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of the war, and why were these attempts unsuccessful?

Over the years, leaflets were dropped and messages were broadcast by the government to inform Onoda and his unit in jungle. These efforts were unsuccessful because of skepticism of the soldiers who believed that these were tricks of enemies to locate them.

5. How do Norio Suzuki become involved in Onoda's story, and what challenges did he face in convincing Onoda to believe that the war had ended?

Norio Suzuki was an adventurer and he was being assigned to find Onoda in the island. He found Onoda in the jungles.

of island. He tried his best to convince Onado that war had ended, but he could not believe. After sought confirmation from higher authorities, ~~he~~ Onado believed and emerged out from the jungle.

Q. 4

Correct five?

(i) If there were no bad people, there will be no good lawyers. If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

(ii) Not only Sir Majid grill a steak for Sir Azhar, but he - - - - - Shahab. Not only Sir Majid grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

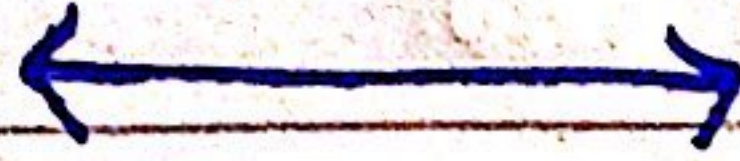

(iii) Tahir Sab - - - - - beautiful performance. Tahir Sab performed well; it was a magnificent performance.

(iv) I wish I can go back to earlier times. I wish I could go back to earlier times.

(v)

Hassan Ali - - - - - polling station.

Hassan Ali Gondal would stay at home rather than going to polling station.

Q. 5, (a)

Punctuate?

Bill Clinton walked into the Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?"

The waiter grinned; "Of course, Sir! Our biryani is so good.

It will make you forget your own name." Bill laughed; "I hope not! I need that for Imran."

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped; "In Pakistan, we do not need candles. Our biryani alone can light up the room."

Bill replied; "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party."

They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humour and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

b) Prepositions?

- (i) The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.
- (ii) We walked over the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
- (iii) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.
- (iv) The plane flew over the clouds, offering a breathtaking view.
- (v) My brother sat with me during the movie and ~~was~~ shared his popcorn.

Q.6(a) Idioms?

- (i) Crocodile tears: She shed crocodile tears on the death of her mother-in-law as she ~~was~~ was happy inside.
- (ii) Burning the midnight oil: She is burning the midnight oil to pass exam.
- (iii) Elephant in the room: To cover this question of Pakistan's economy before the exam is likened to put elephant in the room.

(iv)

Paint the town red:

Terrorist attacks have caused severe casualties and painted the town red.

(v)

Throw in the towel:

After taking shower in cold, he threw himself in the towel.

Q, 6, 8

Convert into narrations?

Heer asked Ranjha that where he had been and told him that she missed him so much. Ranjha replied to Heer that he had to travel and his heart never left her. He further asked her about her health. Heer replied to Ranjha on that she was lonely without him and inquired about his journey. Ranjha said that his journey was a quest for self-discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers but his thoughts were with you. Heer further asked that what he learned on his journey.

Ranjha replied that he learned the value of struggle and the strength it gave. Heer told him that she was counting
the days of his return.
Ranjha told him that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial. Heer said that ~~do not dwell on the time apart.~~
~~They are together now, and that is~~
~~all that matters.~~ Ranjha denied that exams ~~were~~ are near.
he has to leave and his success
would conquer distance and time.

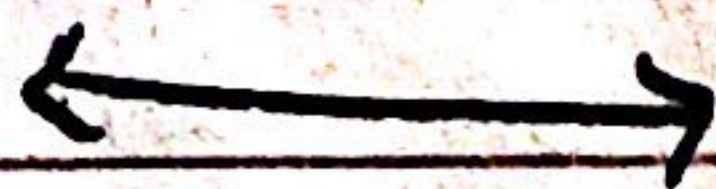

Q.7

Translate?

All degrees are going to be ~~irrelevant~~ ^{functionless} in coming three years.
The pace of technology and wish of getting benefit from it is so fast that ~~our~~ previous information, sources of information even syllabus and subjects, all are become irrelevant. When every information is available on screen of palm size mobile phone then skill dominates knowledge and action takes over on idea.

It is fear that in coming days how scholars would attentive their listeners by telling stories on sitting and how teachers would understand pupils in small classroom about the Universe who are constantly getting benefits from internet.

Q.2

Precis?

Integrity of State Institutions: Key to development

Tiers of State

Judiciary is the respectable institution of state. The independence of judiciary is integral in provision of justice and equality to all. The state and its citizens must acknowledge role of judiciary by not interfering in its domain. The other institution of state is the legislative which represents the public and democratic process. The political leaders and public are contributor in smooth process of legislation. The executive branch is responsible for administering and implementing laws and policies. Citizens should trust government servants in order to function properly. The three tiers of government state work collectively and progress of nation improves. It is responsibility of government officials to follow laws and set example for public. Transparency, unbiased decision and accountability are core elements to inspire masses. The respect of institutions is corner stone of democratic system and in nation's development. It is also a duty of citizens to respect the state's institutions.

Words in passage: 323
Words in Preci: 168

