Q6: Punctuate the following passage:-

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter,

“Do you have biryani?”

The waiter grinned, “Of course, sir.”

“Our’s so good it will make you forget your own name!”

Bill laughed, “I hope not!”

“I need that for Imran.”

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, “In Pakistan we don’t need candles.”

“Our biryani can light up the room.”

Bill replied, “True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!”

They both chuckled realising that in Pakistan,

humour and hospitality go hand in hand

making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Q7: Direct indirect passages:

Heer inquired Ranjha about his whereabouts and told him that she had missed him so much.

Ranjha told Heer that he had to travel, but his heart never left her. He asked Heer that how she had been? Heer replied Ranjha that she felt lonely without him. She inquired Ranjha about his journey.

Ranjha told Heer that his journey was a quest for self discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were with her.

Heer asked Ranjha, "What he learned on his journey?"

Ranjha replied that he learned the value of struggle and strength it gives.

Heer told Ranjha that she had been counting the <sup>days</sup> moments until his return.

Ranjha told Heer that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial. Heer romantically said to Ranjha that not to dwell on the time apart. She said, "We are together now, and that's all that matters."

Ranjha refused Heer's request and told her that his exams were near. He had to leave, but his success would conquer distance and time.
