

Name: Faryal Khalig
Father Name: Abdul Khalig
LMS ID: _____ Date: ___/___/2024
Subject: Precis & Composition Paper: _____ Test: _____
Batch No. _____ Campus: Main Campus SB-2 RWP-I WP-II LHR Online

Faryal

Candidate Sign

Instructor Sign

Mock Exam. Part-II

Q2.

Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

do not use first person in the precis

~~State Institutions & Our Responsibility~~

Judiciary, a state institution, demands respect. It acts as guardian of law and citizens. No one should undermine its authority. Citizen and leader must acknowledge its role in upholding justice and equality. Similarly, the legislative branch represents people. By respecting its institutions and Rols, citizen and leaders strengthen the democratic ideal. The well-functioning executive branch also requires respect

Understanding of the passage is fine work on grammar

work cohesively, it leads toward progress. Respecting these institutions is

In briefs and Try to reflect original idea of the passage in your own words
Plz attempt at least one third of original message
Focus on your reading please Write something like please also important for leaders. They must embody the essential elements to seek public confidence. It is not just a social obligation but a democratic fundamental. Upholding justice and accountability reinforce a nation. As citizens, we should honour these principles.

Q-3.

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Q1 Why is Hiroo ^{well explained keep it up} considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty?
Hiroo Onoda is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because of his unwavering dedication during World War II. He was sent to Lubang Island in 1944, and World War II ended in 1945 with Japan's surrender. Various attempts were made to inform Onoda about war's end but he refused to believe. He followed orders for almost 30 years after the war. His story captures the world's attention, earning him admiration for his discipline and dedication. Despite the changing world around him, his resilience and unwavering loyalty made him symbol of strength.

Q2 In what location was Onoda sent with orders during...

During World War II, Hiroo Onoda was sent to Luzon Island in the Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations in 1944. The instructions in the order given to him was to engage in guerrilla warfare. When the tides of war turned against Japan, Onoda's unit was isolated and cut off from communication.

Q3. Why did Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware...?

Onoda and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945, because when the tides of war turned against Japan, Onoda's unit was isolated and found themselves isolated and cut off from communication. So, when war ended in 1945, they remained steadfast in their mission and continued to operate in dense jungle, unaware of shifting political landscape. Various attempts were made to inform him and his unit about the war's end. Leaflets were dropped, messages by Philippines government was broadcasted but they believed that such attempts were enemies' tricks.

Q4. What efforts were made over the years to contact and inform

Over the years attempts were made to contact and inform Onoda and his unit about the war's end. Those efforts included dropping leaflets, broadcasting of messages by Phillipines governments. But all these attempts were unsuccessful because the dense foliage or skepticism of soldiers who believed such attempts were enemy tricks, and thwarted all efforts.

Q5. How did Norio Suzuki become involved in Onoda's story?

Almost three decades after the war's end, the Onoda's extraordinary tale gained attention. It was then, Norio Suzuki, a young adventurer, ventured into jungles of Cubang with a mission to find 'Lieutenant Onoda'. He stumbled upon Onoda's hiding spot. ~~The young man~~ was persistent in convincing Onoda that the war was over. He even found Onoda's former commanding officer. Despite the officer's orders, Onoda was hesitant to

In composition, answer each question comprehensively. Do not be irrelevant in your answer. Please enhance length of each answer. Read the passage carefully.

lay down his arms.

Q. 4.

Correct any FIVE of the following.

4) If there were no bad people, there will be no good lawyers.

If there were no bad people, there would be ~~no~~ good lawyers.

5) I wish I can go back to earlier times.

I wish I ~~could~~ go back to earlier times.

6) Money makes the mere go.
Money makes the more go.

7) Not only Sir Majid grill a steak for Sir Azhar, but he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.
Not only Sir Majid grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

8) Tahir Sabab performed well; it was magnificiently beautiful performance.
Tahir Sabab performed well; it was magnificiently beautiful performance.

Q5. A.

Punctuate the following passage.

Bill Clinton walked ~~into~~ a Karachi be careful about capitalization

it is also part of punctuation restaurant, and asked the waiter,

"Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "of course, Sir. Our Biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed,
"I hope not! I need that for the Imran!" Later, during a power outage, I ran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our Biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutneys,
we might even have a disco party!"
They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Q5-B.

Re-write the following sentences (ONLY FIVE) after filling in the blanks with appropriate prepositions

- i) My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn.
- iii) We walked on the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
- iv) He hid the gift under his bed to surprise his sister later.

vi) The kids played ~~in~~ the park until the sun went down.

vii) The plane flew above the clouds, offering a ~~breath-taking~~ view.

Q6.

Use any five idioms in your own sentences

c) Burning the midnight oil: CSS aspirants are burning the midnight oil as the exams are drawing nearer.

e) Crocodile tears: Satwan was shedding crocodile tears to watch cartoon on his mother's phone.

f) Jump on the bandwagon: I jumped on the bandwagon of CSS in July 2023.

g) Paint the town red: Behar painted the town when she got admission in university.

h) To have a chip on one's shoulder: He is having a chip on his shoulder ever since Mehmood rejected him.

B.

Rewrite the following passage, converting what is in direct speech in indirect...
asked

Heer said to Ranjha that she had missed him so much. Ranjha replied that he had to travel, but his heart never left her and how she had been. Heer told him that she felt lonely without him and then asked him about his journey. Upon this, he told her that he was on a quest for self-discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were always with her. When Heer asked him about his learning from that journey, he told her that he learned the value of struggle and the strength it gave. She told him that she had been counting the days until his return. Ranjha replied that he had been counting the ~~days~~ moments until he would succeed in his final trial. Upon this, Heer suggested to to dwell on the time apart, as they were together now and that was all that mattered. Ranjha responded that ~~he~~ he had to leave as the exam ~~was~~ ^{were} near. But his success would conquer distance and time.

Q7.

Translate the following into English.

..... all the degrees would prove a piece of paper in near future

All the degrees are going to be ~~using useless~~ in the ~~next few~~ years.

The speed of technology and the desire to get benefit from this is so ^{Translation} ~~much~~ ^{Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner} ~~fast~~ ^{Focus on grammar please} that our previous ^{Do not attempt word by word} information sources of information, even the courses and subjects, ~~everything~~ all are becoming irrelevant.

When all kind of information becomes readily available on mobile screen that fits in ~~palm~~ the surface of a palm, then skill conquers knowledge and practice wins over thoughts.

Where Dreams Come True