

Date:

Fiza Hussain, 08-47.

Q# 04:

Answers:

01. Hassan Ali Gohdal would rather stay at home than go to the polling station
08. Not only did sir Majid grill a steak for sir Azhar, but he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab
09. Tahir sab performed well; it was a magnificent performance.
10. I wasn't satisfied with the education that I received from my university, so I took admission in NOA.
02. Advocate Malik Huzefa always looks for inspiration. None ever comes.

Q# 05:

—:(A):—

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir. Our Biryani is so good it'll make you forget your own name." Bill laughed, "I hope not, I need that for Imran".
Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan we don't need candles, our Biryani alone can light up the room." Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a nice party." They both chuckled, realising that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal and unforgettable experience.

Date: _____

Capitalization is also part of punctuation

—:(B):—

01. My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn

02. The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase

03. We walked by the bridge to reach the other side of the river

04. He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister.

05. The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

Q# 06 :-

Answers:

—:(A):—

Date: _____

- (a):- They are never going to reach an agreement because they keep ignoring the actual elephant in the room.
- (b):- She threw in the towel after failing two attempts of the competitive exams and did not go for her final one.
- (c):- Burning the midnight oil will surely help her succeed in her goals.
- (d):- She does not have the potential to succeed, she is merely building castles in the air.
- (e):- They started shedding crocodile tears upon getting caught. He was not ashamed of his crime at all.

—:(B):—

Where he had been

Heer asked Ranjha about where he had been and told him that she missed him also. He replied that he had to travel, but his heart never left her side. He also asked about how he had been. Heer told him that she has been lonely without him. She further asked him about how his journey went. He told her that he had learned the value of struggle and the strength that it gives. Heer told him that she had been counting days until his return. Ranjha replied that he had been counting moments until his final trial. Heer urged him to not dwell on the time apart and said that they were together then and that was all that mattered. Ranjha negated saying that he had to leave but his success will conquer distance and time.

Plz turn it into past

Date: _____

Learn the rules of changing tenses and attempt again

Q # 02:-

Integrity of institutions: key to development

Title:

The Necessity of Respecting the State Institutions

Judiciary, as a state institute, demands respect, as it plays a vital role in the maintenance of a state's legal system. Citizens should avoid subverting its authority. Moreover, the legislature, being the representative of people, requires the same respect. Respectfully sticking to the legislative procedures, by the leaders, and the citizens, reinforces democracy. Similarly, smooth functioning of the executive body also requires respect and trust. Leaders, particularly the political leaders, bear this massive responsibility of setting the standards of trust.

Date: _____

They must embody high ethical values and transparency to win ~~the~~ trust, confidence of the public. Additionally, respect is not a responsibility, rather a necessity for the smooth functioning of a state. It is the duty of citizens to acknowledge state institutions and work towards the betterment of society.

Q # 03

Answers:

- 01: Hiroo is admired because of his discipline and dedication. His tale is famous as the story of a soldier who despite being isolated from the world remained steadfast to his duty. Despite the changing world around him Hiroo Onoda's resilience made him a symbol of strength and loyalty.
- 02: Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.
- 03: Onoda and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender because as the tide of war turned against Japan, the communications were cut off. Hence, Onoda and his unit remained steadfast in the dense jungles unaware of the shifting geopolitical landscape.

Date: _____

04: Over the years, many efforts were made to inform Onoda and his men about the state of the war. Leaflets were dropped, messages were broadcasted by the Philippine government, but the dense foliage and the skepticism of the soldiers made them believe that these were enemy's tricks and hence they ignored all efforts.

05: When Onoda's extraordinary tale gained attention, it caught Norio Suzuki's interest. As a result, the young adventurers set out in the jungles of Iubang to bind Onoda. He faced a lot of problems in convincing Onoda that the war was over. He was viewed with suspicion by Onoda and had to call Onoda's commanding officer to finally convince him.

10

Date: _____

Q# 00:7

All the degrees are going to be useless in the next three years. The speed of technological advancement and our desire to gain benefit from it is so high that our ~~existing~~ previous knowledge, the sources of knowledge, even the syllabi and essays are becoming irrelevant. When every kind of information becomes accessible on phones, merely the size of a palm, talent overcomes knowledge, and practice overcomes imagination. The apprehension now is that how will the storytellers of pulpits be able to gather the attention of their listeners to the topic of their speech, and how will the teachers ^{in small classrooms,} be able to describe the principles of the universe to the students who are continuously gaining benefit from the internet?
~~the small classrooms~~

All the degrees would be futile

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner plz