Q102

Topic: Respect for the end of Government Institutions.

There are three main institutions of the state which are demanding respect. One of them is judiciary, as it ensures the rights of people with fair and unbiased legal system. Therefore, citizen and leaders respect its role. Secondly, parliament any institutions also demands respect as it represents the voice of people. Moreover, the executive branch requires unwavering respect because they are implementing laws and policies. Therefore, citizens and political leaders must trust in the capabilities of government officials to carry out their duties transparently. Similarly, the respect of these institutions is cornerstone of functioning democracy. Hence, it is the duty of citizens to recognize the significance of institutions, where the principles of justice, equality and progress prevail.

Q5 (a)

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant, and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?"

The waiter grinned, of course, sir. "Our biryani is so good that you'll forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran."

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, in Pakistan, "We don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.
