

FINAL MOCK-2024 English Precis and Composition

Question 2 Make a Precise and write a suitable title.

Title: Preserving the sanctity of state institutions

The state institutions of Judiciary, legislative and Executive hold a paramount importance in the strengthening of democracy and ensuring good governance. Moreover, they work in synergy to provide representation to masses, safeguard their constitutional rights and address their grievances. Similarly, the citizens and elected leaders also have some responsibilities towards these institutions. Citizens must show an unwavering trust and respect for the three institutions by upholding values of transparency, accountability and independence of judiciary. While the elected representatives have an even greater responsibility of showing reverence for state institutions by embodying the institutional values of fairness, ethical conduct and open government. Thus, the citizens and leaders must realize that preserving the sanctity of these institutions is pivotal to the national development and progress.

Words Used: 115

Translation

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word

In précis and Try to reflect original idea of the passage in your own words
Plz attempt at least one third of original message
Focus on your reading please
Write self-defining title please

In composition answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

Explain meaning in the sentence form
It does not convey any sense

QUESTION. 5

Part B.

- (i) My brother sat ~~by~~ me during the movie and shared his popcorn.
- (ii) The cat jumped ~~on~~ the table and knocked over the vase.
- (iv) He hid the gift ~~under~~ the bed to surprise his sister later.
- (vi) The kids played ~~in~~ the park until the sun went down.
- (vii) The plane flew ~~over~~ the clouds, offering a breath taking view.

QUESTION. 4

- 3. They had a wonderful time and luckily no one was injured.
- 5. I wish I could go back to earlier/old times.
- 10. I wasn't satisfied with the education I had received at my university, so I took admission in NOA.
- 2. Advocate Malik Huzairfa always looks for inspiration, but none ever comes.

9. Jatin sab performed well; he gave a magnificent and beautiful performance.

QUESTION. 5

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi's restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir. Our biryani is so good it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!"

Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!"

They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humour and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

QUESTION 6 (A)

(a) (c) Burning the midnight oil

She burnt the midnight oil during her semester and cleared the exam in her first attempt.

By burning the midnight oil during her exams, she was able to clear them in her first attempt.

(e) Crocodile tears

She shed crocodile tears to prove her innocence, but they refused to believe her.

(f) Jump on the bandwagon

The tiktok trend was so popular that no influencer could resist jumping on the bandwagon.

(h) Skeleton in the closet

~~He is a well reputed investigator and~~

He was suspicious of the skeletons in her closet, but he remained silent.

(j) Bite off more than one can chew

He was repeatedly told not to bite off more than he can chew, but he still went on and

(a) Elephant in the room

The CEO knew that he must address the elephant in the room by declaring the news of bankruptcy in front of his staff.

Q6.B

Heer asked Ranjha about his whereabouts and told him that she had missed him a lot. Ranjha replied to her by saying that he had to travel, but his heart never let her. He asked how she had been.

Heer responded to him saying that she was lonely without him and asked him to narrate his journey. Ranjha told her that it was a quest for self discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were always with her.

Heer asked him what he had learnt from his journey. Ranjha responded by saying that he learnt the value of struggle and the strength it gave.

Heer told him that she had been counting the days till his return. To this, Ranjha said that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial.

Heer told him that they should not dwell on the time apart. They were together now, and that was all that mattered.

Rajha exclaimed, ~~so~~ that in disagreement and said that exams were near and he had to leave. But his success will conquer distance and time.

Question 7

All degrees will be redundant in next three years. The pace of technology and the desire <sup>utilize it</sup> to adopt it is so fast that our previous information, sources of information and even curriculum and subjects ~~are all becoming irrelevant~~. When diverse information is readily available on screen of a hand held cell phone, then skill overpowers the knowledge and act takes priority over the thought. Now the concern is that how well in coming days how will the story tellers unite their viewers audience on the ability of their speech by ~~p~~ while performing on stage, ~~forever~~, and simultaneously get acquainted with it

stage and how will the teachers make their students understand the secrets of universe in a small room when these students are simultaneously acquainted with the internet as well. already making use of

Question 3:- (1)

Hiroo Onoda showed an unwavering commitment and discipline towards his responsibility as a Japanese <sup>officer</sup> soldier. He followed his orders for 30 years with extraordinary discipline and an exemplary work ethic. The sheer sense of loyalty that he depicted and the resilience <sup>he</sup> of spirit that he embodied made him a symbol of sense and loyalty.
 strength

Q (2)

As a Japanese intelligence officer during World War II, Onoda was sent to the island of Lubang in the Philippines. He was ordered to create disruptions in the enemy's operations and engage in the guerrilla warfare there.

Q3

As Japan met with a defeat during the World War II, Onoda's unit was practically cut off from all the communication and they were isolated. Due to lack of absence of any communication they remained unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945. They continued to serve their mission in the dense jungles completely unaware of the new geopolitical developments.

Q4.

Over the years the Philippines government made numerous efforts to inform Onoda and his men about the end of war. The government even broadcasted many messages and dropped leaflets to inform them, but it all went in vain. The reasons behind these failed efforts were were included the dense landscape of the jungle and skepticism of the soldiers. They believed that it was only a trick of the enemy to defeat them in their mission. Therefore, all the efforts to contact them went futile.

Q5.

Norio Suzuki was a young adventurer who had heard about Onoda's story. He embarked on a mission to find "Lieutenant Onoda". When Norio approached officer Onoda, he did not believe him and stayed cautious for an of an attack. However the young adventurer stayed quite persistent in convincing him that the war was over. When Onoda still not believe him then Suzuki even went on to find Onoda's former commanding officer Taniguchi, who flew into Japan to formally relieve Onoda of his duties. However Onoda still refused to leave the mission and seeked confirmation from higher ranking officers which he eventually received. Finally after facing all these multiple challenges Norio was successful in making Onoda believe his word and leave the jungles.