

Q. No. 2:

Respect for State Institutions

~~Tripartite~~ ~~of power~~ is the ~~one~~ of democracy where ~~each~~ ~~branch~~ ~~respect~~ the ~~power~~ and ~~function~~ of other. It is the responsibility of every citizen and leaders to respect and trust the state institution for effective functioning of democracy.

Judiciary function is to interpret the laws, provide justice and protection of fundamental rights of citizen.

Legislative branch is responsible for making laws, in accordance with the public will. ~~The~~ respect for ~~the~~ legislation, is the key principle of democracy.

The executive branch is responsible for implementing laws and policies. Citizen must trust their government, and officials should carry their function transparently. All state's institution must work harmoniously for the development and progress of the country. As a citizen it is our responsibility to respect the state institutions, so that a society is based on justice and equality is formed.

Q No 3:-

- 1) Hiroo became the symbol of strength and loyalty because of this dutifulness and resilience. He fought for 39 years, and after the war had ended, his prisoner Major Yoshimi Taniguchi had to come and persuade him that war has ended.
- 2) Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in Phillippines during world war II. He was given responsibility to fight enemy through guerrilla warfare.
- 3) Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japanese surrender in 1945 because they were operating in dense jungle, and because of skepticism that enemy trying to ^{destroy them} disrupt them. Very different tactics.

3

4) Different efforts were made to contact and inform Onado and his followers by dropping ~~brochures~~ pamphlets, and messages were disseminated by the ~~Philippine~~ Philippine government, ~~these~~ but these attempts were ~~unsuccessful~~ unsuccessful because of the Onado and his soldiers kept ~~thinking~~ thinking a ~~enemy~~ enemy he believed that enemy is trying to destroy them.

5) Norio Suzuki was a young adventurer, and started searching Onado. He was in finding Onado but Onado was doubtful and was not convinced. ~~And~~ Suzuki had to find Onado's former commanding officer Major Y. Panigrahi to convince Onado.

No 4:

1) Hassan Ali Ghandal would rather stay at home than go to polling station.

3) They had a wonderful time and luckily
no one was injured.

4) If there were no bad people, there wouldn't be any good lawyers.

5) I wish I could go back to earlier times.

9) Tahir says performed well; it was magnificent and beautiful performance.

Q No 5:-

B(A)

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "do you have baryani?"

The waiter grinned, "of course sir. Our baryani is so good. It'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not!

I need that for the Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles.
Our baryani alone can light up the room!"

Bill replied, "True. And if you add some spicy Chutney, we might even have a 'Dusse Paryi'!" They both chuckled, reaching that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand and in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

B. My brother sat next to me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

i) The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.

ii) He walked across the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

iii) He had the gift on the bed to surprise his sister later.

iv) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.

v) The kids played the park until the sun went down.

vi) The plane flew over the clouds, offering a breathtaking view.

vii) We gathered around the campfire to share stories and laughter.

Q No 6:

Elephant in the room.

During the meeting, the tension between the two friends was the elephant in the room.

Burning the midnight oil.

Ali was burning the midnight oil to obtain good marks in the exam.

Paint the town red

The final year students celebrated by painting the town red.