

- 1) Hassan Ali Mirza would rather stay at home than go to the polling station.
- 2) Advocate Malik Hussain always looks for inspiration but none ever comes.
- 3) They had a wonderful time and luckily no one was injured.
- 4) If there were no bad people, there would be no bad lawyers.
- 5) I wish I could go back to earlier times.

(A) Bill Clinton walked into a Kasabi restaurant and asked the waiter, "do you have biryani?" The waiter grimaced, "of course sir, our biryani is so good it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for my Imam!" Later, during a power outage, Imam quipped, "In Pakistan we don't need candles, our Imam alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "true! and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a dinner party!" They both chuckled realizing that in Pakistan, humor and ~~hostility~~ go hand in hand making every meal an unforgettable experience.

- B) i) The cat jumped ON the table and knocked the vase.
- ii) We walked OVER the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
- iii) He hid the gift UNDER the bed to surprise his sister later.
- iv) The plane flew ~~above~~ the clouds, offering a breathtaking views.
- v) My brother sat ~~beside~~ me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

106d) Jump on the bandwagon:-

With every new trend, Gen Z are the first one to jump on the bandwagon.

b) Elephant in the room:-

During the meeting the boss ignored to address the elephant in the room.

d) As exams come closer, every student has been busying the midnight oil.

d) Politicians keep Cocodile tears for the poor during their election campaign.

e) There is always a skeleton in the closet, when one digs into family history.

106 (B)

Heer asked Barjha where he had been and expressed how much she had missed him. He replied that he had to travel but his heart never left her. He asked about her, to which she responded that she had been lonely without him, asking him to show his journey. Barjha explained his journey was a quest to self-discovery, wandering through valleys and crossing rivers with Heer in his thoughts. Heer questioned what he had learnt from his journey, and Barjha told that he had learnt the value of struggle and the strength it gives. Heer expressed how she had been counting the days of his return, and Barjha told that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial. Heer suggested not dwelling on the time apart as they are together now, and that what mattered. However, Barjha stated that his exams were near and that he had to leave. Expressing how his success will conquer distance and time.

Q7:

All degrees in the upcoming three years will go in vain. The speed of technology and the (b)' urge to gain its benefit is so much so that our previous ways of gaining knowledge through courses and Essays have become irrelevant. When every kind of information is accessible in ~~phones~~ the phone people carry in their hands. Then skill overtakes knowledge and acts overtake the ability to think. Now ~~the fear is coming to our mind~~ how the people who used to read stories to the audience, how will they teach them about ~~the~~ the world. And ~~this~~ how will the teachers teach their students about the universe in a small room who are always gaining from the internet?

Translation

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner.

Focus on grammar please.

Do not attempt word by word

Q01:- Hideo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because he was sent to disrupt enemy operations during world war II. Unfortunately the war turned against Japan and Hideo with his unit were found isolated. After the war ended the Philippines government threw leaflets and broadcasted messages of the war being over, but Hideo and his men considered it as a enemy trick. They remained steadfast and continued on with their operation until he was found.

Q02: Onada was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines during world war II. His specific instructions were to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

Q03:- Onada and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 due to lack of communication. The dense

In composition, answer each question comprehensively. Do not be irrelevant in your answer. Please enhance length of each answer. Read the passage carefully. Explain meanings in the sentence form. It does not convey any sense.

jungle where the unit was operating in made it hard for them to receive information.
Despite attempts by the Philippine government by sending leaflets and broadcasting messages, the soldiers considered it as enemy tactics. Thus, all efforts went in vain.

Q04: Over the years there were various attempts made to contact the unit
(but) by the Philippine government
by sending in leaflets and broadcasting messages to the dense forest. But the unit denied to believe the messages sent towards them. As they thought it was a part of the enemy's plan. Therefore,
the dense jungle and the distrust
of the soldiers led towards no communication.

Q05: Norio Suzuki went on a adventure,
with a mission to find Lieutenant Onada. During the adventure Suzuki came across Onada's hiding spot.

Onada eyed Suzuki, as Suzuki posed the challenge to convince Onada that the war was over, but Onada kept being skeptical until Suzuki ~~wrote and bowled~~ Onada's former commanding officer, to call ~~him~~ off duty. Thus, on March 9, 1974,
Lieutenant ~~Heiso~~ Onada came out of the jungle.

Title: State institutions: Pillars of democracy.

In a democratic system, the judiciary serves as a prime state institution, which safeguards justice, interprets laws and upholds citizens rights. Standing by its independence is necessary for a fair legal system. Likewise, the legislative branch represents the people, grows an respect ^{to} ~~the~~ parliamentary institutes and representatives. Open debates and sticking to procedures bring a robust democratic process. The executive branch demands unwavering respect for policy implementation. Trust leads towards sustainable development. Therefore, leaders must show transparent government decision making and accountability. Respecting state institutions is not a societal obligation but the pillar of democracy. Citizens play a pivotal role in recognizing, contributing and building the state institutes.

In précis and Try to reflect original idea of the passage in your own words
Plz attempt at least one third of original message
Focus on your reading please Write self-defining title please