

Q. 02

dignity of state institutions: vital for prosperity

Topic: Strengthening State Institutions

Judiciary is a respected institution which overlooks the safety and rights of citizens. <sup>respected institution</sup>

Maintaining an independent judiciary, secures a strong legislative. People must elevate judiciary principles of justice and equality. Respecting state institutions is necessary.

Through active interaction leaders and citizens contribute to strong legislative. Uplifting institutions strengthens accountability. Executives require proper respect to function. Citizens must trust executives in their duties. When institutions work efficiently and fairly, it leads to a well governed state. Political leaders are a role model. They influence people. They set an example by abiding institutional procedures. Leaders must strengthen accountability and governance.

Respecting state institutions is obligatory for democracy. Strengthening judiciary and accountability ensures a prosperous nation.

The duty of citizens is to strengthen state institutions to prevail justice and equality.

(126 words)

Q. 03

Q.1) Hiroo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty due to his dedication towards his duty and his country. He survived almost thirty years in jungles to perform his duty and to prove his patriotism to his country. He remained steadfast and consistent with his small unit towards his mission. Thus, his dedication and resilience prove him a symbol of strength and loyalty.

Q.2) Onoda was an intelligence officer, who was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines in 1944, during World War II. He was given instructions to disrupt enemy operations and to engage in guerrilla warfare. Their goal was to disturb delay enemy operations using guerrilla war tactics. Onoda was heading a small group ~~where~~ who remained in dense jungle to cause commotion ~~in~~ on enemy grounds.

Q.3) Onoda and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 because they were cut off from communication. They were isolated from the rest of the world. They were in dense jungle and there ~~was~~<sup>was</sup> no any means to contact them, and inform them about the end of war. As, they were unaware of the end of war, they continued with their mission.

8.4) There were many attempts made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of war. Leaflets were dropped from the sky to inform them. Philippine government broadcasted messages through different channels. The attempts remained unsuccessful because Onoda and his men thought these were the enemy tactics to distract them from their mission.

Q.5) Naio Suzuki got involved in Onoda's story when his extraordinary tale gained attention. He went on a conquest to find Onoda in the dense jungle. He succeeded in finding him but he faced challenges in convincing Onoda. Suzuki had to find Onoda's commanding officer Taniguchi. Taniguchi flew to Lubang to convince him and to relieve his duties. That is how Onoda was convinced to return home after thirty years.

Q.04

- 1). Hassan Ali Grendal would stay at home rather than going to polling station.
- 3). They had a wonderful time, and luckily no one was injured.
- 4). If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.
- 8). Not only did Sir Majid grill a steak for Sir Azhar, but also cooked biryani for Sir Shabbir.
- 10). I wasn't satisfied with education I received from my university, so I took admission in NOA.

Q. 05 (A)

→ Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir. Our biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imsan."

Later, during a power outage, Imsan quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Q. 05 (B)

- (i) My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn.
- (iii) We walked across the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
- (iv) He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.
- (vi) The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

- (vii) The plane flew ~~over~~ the clouds, offering a breath taking view.
- (ii) The cat jumped ~~on~~ the table and knocked over the vase.
- (v) The book is ~~in~~ the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.

Q. 6 (B)

Heer inquired <sup>write positive and assertive sentence p</sup> Ranjha, about where ~~had~~ he been as she had missed him so much. To which Ranjha replied he had to travel, but his heart never left Heer's side. He asked Heer how she had been. Heer sadly replied she felt lonely. She asked him about his journey. Ranjha said it was self-discovery quest. He had wandered through valleys, and crossed rivers but his thoughts remained with ~~her~~ her. Heer asked about his learning from the journey. Ranjha replied he had learned about the value of struggle, and its strength. Heer told Ranjha that she had been eagerly waiting for his return, counting days. Ranjha replied he had been counting moments until he could succeed in his final trial. Heer asked him to not dwell on the time apart. They were together and that was all that mattered. To which Panjha denied and said his exams were near. He had to leave. But his success would conquer distance and time.

Q. 07

All degrees are going to be useless in next three years. The desire for speedy technology, and to get benefit from it, is growing so much that our previous knowledge, knowledge sources even the curriculum and topics, all are becoming irrelevant. When every <sup>kind of</sup> information is available on a palm sized cell-phone's screen, than skill outshines knowledge and action prevails thinking. It is feared that in coming days that ~~how~~ <sup>how</sup> public speaker on stages will convince their audience on spiritual speeches, and how will teachers teach universal laws to students in a small classroom, who are always benefiting from internet.

piz attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner please