Q6 (B).

Heer asked Ranjha where he had been, he had missed him so much. Ranjha replied to Heer that he had to travel but his heart had never left him and further asked how he had been. Heer replied to him that he was lonely with him and further asked about his journey. Ranjha replied that it had been a quest for self-discovery and he had wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts had been always with him. Heer asked what he had learnt on his journey. Ranjha replied he had learned the value of struggle and the strength it gave. Heer told that he had been counting the days until his return. Ranjha replied that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trials. Heer suggested that not to dwell on the time part as they were together then and that's all that matters. Ranjha replied in negation and told that the exams were near and he had to leave, but his success would conquer distance on time.

Q7

All ~~things~~ ~~are~~ ~~becoming~~ ~~irrelevant~~ is the next ~~three~~ ~~years~~. The expansion of technology is so fast and the desire to get benefit from so high as it is making the previous information, sources of information and even curriculum irrelevant. When every sort of information is available on mobile screen in one's hand, then skills surpass knowledge and actions overcome over ideas. Now it is a growing dilemma that in the coming year days, how leaders will deliver speech to united people and how a teacher, in a small room, will understand those students who are getting advantages from the internet.
