

all degrees would be just a piece of paper.

CSS 2024

Mock Test

Q-7: Translation of Message in English.

All the degrees are going to become futile in next three years. Speed of technology and desire to get benefit from it is so rapid that sources previous our previous knowledge, even though curriculum and subjects are going to become irrelevant. When every type of information become available on phone that fits the palm then skill dominates the knowledge and practice supersede thought. Now, it has become possibility that in upcoming days, our story tellers on stages can agree their audience on self-speech and at the same time, how <sup>will</sup> teachers make student's concept clear, who get benefit from internet, about the mysteries of Universe in small room.

Q-5=A: Punctuation

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter do you have biryani. The waiter grinned, "of course!" sir, our biryani is so good; it'll make you forget your own name. Bill laughed! I hope not, I need that for the Imran.

Later during a power outage, Imran quipped in Pakistan. We don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room. Bill replied: true and if <sup>you</sup> add some spicy chutney we might have a disco party. They, both, chuckled, realizing that the Pakistani humor and hospitality go hand in hand; making every meal an unforgettable experience.

B-

- 1) The kids played ~~in~~ the park until the sun went down.
- 2) The cat jumped onto the table and knocked over vase.
- 3) The plane flew off the clouds, offering a breathtaking view.
- 4) The book is on the shelf, right next to encyclopedia.
- 5) We walked across the bridge to reach the other side of river.

Q-6= Idioms Usage

- 1) Burning the midnight oil
Sana is burning the midnight oil to pass the CSS examination.
- 2) Crocodile tears
Alicia is very clever. Sana does not believe in her crocodile tears.
- 3) Castles in the Air
She used to make castles in the air but, in reality, she is a shirker and never act upon her <sup>own</sup> sayings.
- 4) Bite off more than one can chew
I told her not to bite off more than she can chew because I know she cannot fulfill her promises but she loves to make tall talks.

s) Skeleton in the closet

Ali is very weak and he seems like skeleton in the closet in his family because his family members, contrary to him, are healthy and energetic.

Q=4= Correction

- 1) Hassan Ali Gondal would stay at home rather than going to polling station.
- 2) Not only Sir Majid grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but also he cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.
- 3) I was not satisfied with education that I received from my university, so I took admission in NOA.
- 4) They had a wonderful time and luckily, none of them were injured.
- 5) Tahir sab performed well and it was a beautiful performance.

Q-3 = Read passage and answer questions.

A-1 = Hiroo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty, because he fulfilled his duties without any fear of enemies. Furthermore, he kept on his mission in jungle without any contact with worldly affairs and fulfilled his duties with full resilience and zest.

A-2 = During World War II, Hiroo Onoda was sent to Lubang island in Philippines. As he was an intelligence officer so he was ordered to destruct and report enemies operations which they intended to do against Japan. Moreover, he was directed to do guerrilla warfare for defeating enemies.

A-3 = During World War II, Japan had surrendered and defeated by opponents. As Hiroo and his unit were sent to Lubang Island where they were operating their mission in the dense jungles. They had lost communication with the world that's why they did not get any information about change in geopolitical landscape and Japan's surrender which made them feel isolated.

A-4 = Multiple attempts were made to inform Onoda and his men about end of war like dropping leaflets and broadcasting information about war end on behalf of Philippine government. But Onoda and his unit considered that their enemies were doing and using these tactics against them for shattering their courage and persistence. Due to their faithfulness with their duty, they did not believe on these messages. Resultantly, all efforts went in vain.

A=5 Norio Suzuki was an adventurer, he went on a mission of finding Onoda. He succeeded in finding him but he faced difficulty in convincing Onoda that war had ended. Norio had searched Onoda's commander to get <sup>official</sup> orders from him for Onoda to quit his duties. Even then, Onoda did not believe on orders and thought it any trick of enemy. Norio had faced much trouble during convincing Onoda about war end.

Q=2= Write Precis.

Judiciary, a state institution, upholds justice and ensures the human rights. An independent judiciary paves way for effective judicial system. Likewise, legislative organ of state is the building block of democracy. While, constructive and unbiased discussion at parliamentary forum strengthens legislative system. Another pillar of state is its executive branch that executes state laws and policies. So, cohesive understanding of the passage is fine work on your grammar please

Working of state institutions is crucial for good governance and progress of country. Citizens and <sup>especially</sup> political <sup>leaders</sup> are responsible for maintaining sanctity of state institutions. Democracy stands on the sanctity of these institutions. So, it is citizen's liability to give due respect to state institutions for developing a society of justice and progress.

116 words

Title: Sanctity of State Institutions: A path towards a ~~just society~~

OR Respecting State Institutions: Building Block of Democracy

Q=6= B

Heer asked Ranjha where he had been.

She had missed him so much.

Ranjha replied to <sup>Heer</sup> ~~he~~ had to travel, <sup>but</sup> Heer my heart never left you. He asked how she has been.

Heer said that she was lonely without him and asked him about his journey.

Ranjha said: "It was a quest for self-discovery. ~~He~~ had wandered through valleys and crossed rivers but my thoughts were always with you."

Heer asked what he had learned in his journey.

Ranjha said that he had learned the value of struggle and strength it gave.

Heer said I had been counting the days until his return.

Ranjha replied that he had been counting the moments until he <sup>could</sup> succeed in his final trial.

Heer said let's not dwell on the time apart we were going then and this all that matters.

Ranjha forbade her and said that exams were near, he had to leave. But his success would conquer distance and time.