Punctuating the Passage.

(A)

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi Restaurant and asked the waiter, "do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "of course sir. Our biryani is so good. It will make you forget your own name." Bill laughed, "I hope not. I need that for the Imran." Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "in Pakistan we do not need candles. Our biryani alone can light up the room." Bill replied, "true, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party." They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan humor and hospitality go hand in hand making every meal an unforgettable experience.
