

TOPIC #

Elections are the only solution to multi-pronged problems in Pakistan

Outline #

I. Introduction

Thesis statement :-

There are multipronged problems in Pakistan due to the delay in elections. These problems are political, economic and social which can be only solved through timely elections as it is the representation of democracy any delay in elections can aggravate the problems. Thus, measures are needed to tackle the the multi-facet Problems in Pakistan.

II. What are the multi-pronged problems that are prevailing in Pakistan.

- a) Political Instability
- b) Economic crisis
- c) Social problem
- d) constitutional crisis

III. How Elections are the only solution to multi-pronged problems in Pakistan.

- a) Elections are the important pillar of democracy
- b) It bring a stable government to run a country
- c) Elections end the political chaos and institution clashes
- d) Election will end the lawlessness and empower citizens.
- e) Timely elections will make things in right direction.

- f) It will bring equitable social order
- g) New government will revive the paused system.

IV. Delay in Elections will aggravate the problems :-

- a) Political chaos remains the same.
- b) Economic crisis will continue
- c) Social problems grows even more.

V. Measures to tackle the multi-pronged problems in Pakistan :-

- a) Timely elections to safeguard constitution
- b) Effective role of ECP to arrange elections on time
- c) Free and Fair election
- d) Collaborations among various institution to make effective laws and policies.
- e) Maintain Democracy in its true spirit by following rule of law.

VI. Conclusion.

It is rightly said by the President of Nigeria ; "Economic stability is not possible without political stability."

"Democracy is not just about voting, but ensuring that people's voices are heard"

- Dr Ambedkar