Q1. A) Any kind of noise that interferes with a man's life is called noise pollution. If this pollution is left unchecked, it can have important physical and mental effects on humans and animals. In Pakistan, noise pollution is one of the main causes of pain, suffocation, and discomfort. In big cities and urban areas, noise pollution has reached dangerous levels. For example, in Punjab, according to Environmental Protection Agency's survey, Lahore's noise has reached 91 decibel, where as, the maximum bearable amount is 75 decibel. This means that many people's physical and mental health is already at risks.

B) The universe has made it a part of human nature to be always tied to ~~keep~~ hope, and the hunt for it. When one hope breaks, he moves on to another. One after another, the process continues as long as the person continues to breathe. If the universe had not made it a part of human personality to dream and have hopes for it, he would have died at the first failure. He would have died of hopelessness.
