

English Essay

Criminal Neglect of Child Labour and its Consequences

- Outline:

1. Introduction:

Thesis Statement:

Child labour is a constitutionally declared crime in Pakistan yet it has not been eliminated from society due to continuous neglect towards its causes and implications.

The social evil of child labour deprives the child from his fundamental rights. The constant overlooking of this major social evil has severe adverse repercussions on Pakistan society.

2. What is child labour and its consequences

3. Why is Child Labour continuously neglected in Pakistan:

a. Lack of political will to address this issue.

b. Exploitative, manipulative and extractive social system.

c. Rise in child labour has normalized it in society at grassroots level

d. Prevalence of child labour in agriculture and domestic industry

4. Consequences of Child Labour:

a. Hampers the development of children

b. Deprives a child from acquiring education

c. Deepens the class divide in society

d. Threatens the nourishment of children as productive citizens

5. Way Forward :

- a. Implementation of laws regarding child labour
- b. Promoting free education
- c. Providing scholarship and financial aid to poor children
- d. Condemning child labour in all its forms on all levels

6. Conclusion:

Child is meant to learn, not to earn.