

Outline

Elections are the only solution to multi-pronged problems in Pakistan.

Outline:

Thesis statement:

There are certain multi-pronged problems in Pakistan which can be solved ^{only} by elections. Pakistan is facing various political, economic and social problems due to delay in election. Certain measures needs to be adopted in order to overcome the ongoing multifacet problems in Pakistan.

I. Introduction

II. Elections and multi-pronged problems in Pakistan - an overview

III. Various problems the country is facing:

A. Pakistan being a democratic country, is facing hurdles in democracy

B. Political instability in the country.

C. Economic crisis due to political instability.
 D. The interference of institutions in each others domains.

E. The ongoing multi-Ethnic issues in the country.

IV. Elections as the only solutions to these multi-facet problems in Pakistan.

A. Elections can remove the hurdles in democracy.

B. By 'Elections' the ongoing political instability and the never-ending conflicts among political parties can be solved.

C. Due to elections the economic crisis can be solved by a stable political environment.

D. The elections can remove the interference of institutions in each others domains.

E. By stable government the ongoing multi-Ethnic issues can be solved.

V. Some suggested measures for free and fair elections in the country.

VI. Conclusion

Essay:

In a democratic country the free and fair elections bears a huge importance. In Pakistan there are certain problems which can be solved by elections. When in a democratic country the democracy is neglected that country cannot run. In Pakistan the ongoing problems are only because of delay in the implementation of constitution. Elections in Pakistan can remove the political, economic, social problems. Pakistan is facing political, economic, social problems due to delay in elections. Some suggested measures needs to be adopted in order to overcome the ongoing many problems in Pakistan.

Pakistan a democratic country that is facing various issues within its democracy due to various factors. Political instability in the country gave rise to many other problems. It is the political instability that leads to economic instability which resulted in huge economic crisis.

The political parties are continuously engaged in conflicts with each other. No single party is caring about the country but they are only concerned with the seat and power due to which the country came in a worst situation.