

Title: The World is incomplete
without women

Outline:

1. Introduction

Thesis statement:

Though women faced miserable conditions in the past, the contemporary world bows down to her overriding role. Thus, it can be stated that the world is incomplete without women.

2. Status of women in past

3. Status in modern contemporary world.

4. How world is incomplete without women?

A. Birth of Eve to solace Adam

B. Women in continuation of a race

C. Ambassador of love and affection

D. Un-matched role in social institution of family

E. Quaranters of an educated generation

F. Burden-shares of ^{Men} ~~women~~

G. Role in other social institutions

5. Conclusion

The women have been treated unjustly since long; Their existence is, still, in some societies, considered as a playing thing for sex. They are still bereft of their basic rights; however, the modern world has realized their role in society, and are now of the opinion that the world is incomplete without women?

There are multitude of illustrations, which manifest that the world will not exist if women are nullified from the society.

She plays her vital role in all social institutions; however, her role in family is of paramount importance. Apart from this, she is ambassador of love - without which world will, automatically, complex. Her role as continuation of race and guarantor of an educated nation are of equal importance. Hence, though women faced miserable conditions in past, the contemporary world bows down to her over-riding role in society. Thus it can be stated the world is incomplete without women.

Women plays a crucial role in continuation of a race or a nation. Allah almighty has bestowed the women with the qualities of procreating a child. This is not possible only with men to reproduce and increase his generation, this equality is conferred only to women to have the infants in their placentae. Therefore, for the completeness of world, the presence of women can never be neglected.

Similarly, women are the guarantors of an educated generation. Women act as central pillars in family, hence in child up-bringing. Therefore, if a mother is educated, she can educate her children with norms, values, and traditions of society more effectively. As Malala Yousafzai has rightly said, "~~Give me~~ If you educate a man, you educate a nation. But if you educate a woman, you educate a generation." Hence, role of women is vital for the world.

her worth in other social institutions as well which make it more necessary for the existence of the world women can be observed in each social institutions in a different role. She participates in politics, religious affairs, family matters, education and economic well-being of a nation. Now women is playing her role shoulder to shoulder with men. Hence, by seeing the role of women in five important social institutions, it is mandatory to say that the existence of the world is ~~a~~ improbable without women.