QNO2

Make a Precise of the followings-

Title:- Comparison of International Law and States Law OR Domestic Laws. OR Limitations of/Loopholes of International Law.

The behavior<sup>ur</sup> of the Individuals is determined by state Laws and it is different from any other state. While International Law does not have flexibility, therefore it can not be useful for determining social norms or behaviours of Individuals.

Some Lawyers considered the International Law not well defined in terms of sanctions and it does not match with societal norms. Because the Sovereignty of the States challenged when they accept the International Law. So they both counter each other at some point of sovereignty.

International Law has limitations and benefits as well. No one can deny the importance of it and can not justify it as best law.
