Q01 Translate Both

A) - Translation

Any type of noise that disturbs the human life is called the noise pollution.

If this pollution is left ^{with} undue care it can impact the body and mind of human and animals. In Pakistan, noise pollution is one of those big factors which contributes to ~~part~~ ^{tentid} stress and troublesome. In the urban centres and in the big cities, the noise pollution has reached at a dangerous level. For example, according to the survey of Punjab Environmental Protection agency, the level of noise in Lahore has reached to 91 decibels, though the bearable limit is 75 decibels. It means mentally and physically, the people's health is at stake.

B) In the nature of human, the destiny has made a strange arrangement of being always tied to the strings of hope and expectations. If one string breaks, he holds another. If second breaks he holds the third.

This chain continues till the breakment of the strings of his life. Perhaps if the destiny had not made this chain of hope and expectation, he would have lost at the very first hopelessness. He would have died of despair.
