

Q. Translation:

(A) Any kind of noise that creates distraction in human life is called noise pollution. If not taken care of, this pollution can have serious effects on humans and animals. (physical & mental)

In Pakistan, noise pollution is one of the major causes of trouble, stress and pain. Noise pollution has reached dangerous levels in urban areas and big cities. For example, according to a survey by Environmental Protection Agency in Punjab, noise pollution level in Lahore has reached 91 decibels, where the maximum acceptable limit is 75 decibels. This means that the physical and mental health of many people is already at risk.

(B) Nature has placed a ~~miraculous~~ miraculous ability in human spirit to always tie itself to the strings of hope and faith. If one string, he holds on to a second one, if the second breaks then to a third one - and this process goes on until he takes his last breath. Perhaps, if the universe had not placed this process of hope and faith in human nature, then he would have been finished on the occurrence of the very first hopelessness. He would have died from despair.
