

Isbah Hanif.

Essay # 6.

IMPLICATIONS OF CLIMATE CHANGE FOR CHILDREN IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES.

OUTLINE

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

Children of developing countries are more susceptible to climate change because they are the most vulnerable population and suffer the most in disastrous situations.

2. Climate Change and Children-

3- Climate change poses heightened health risks for children

a. Increased vulnerability to Diseases-

b. Access to Clean water and sanitation issues-

c. Waterborne diseases and hygiene Risks-

d. ~~Un~~ Access to healthcare challenges-

4. Increase in Food Insecurity in developing countries

a. Agriculture disruptions-

b. Water Scarcity-

c. Impact on the nutritional value of foods-

5. Children and extreme weather events due to climate change-

a. Increased Exposure to Natural Disasters-

b. Displacement and Migration-

c. Damaged Infrastructure and impact on education-

- d. Challenges in Recovery from natural disasters.
6. Climate change increases economic vulnerability in developing world.
 - a. Impact on Livelihoods.
 - b. Poverty Risks.
 - c. Limited future opportunities due to lack of infrastructure.
7. Conclusion.

Essay

In the relentless rhythm of our changing world, the echoes of climate change reverberate loudest in the corners often overlooked. Amidst the heated debates and rising temperatures, it is the children in the developing countries who silently bear the burnt of climate change. Picture a future where playgrounds are replaced by parched landscapes and empty classrooms due to extreme weather events. The implications of climate change on children are grave specially from developing world, they have increased vulnerability to diseases and are more susceptible to ~~be on the verge~~ psychological and physical harm due to ~~inter~~ extreme weather and natural disasters that not only destroy their livelihood but also strip away the opportunities to grow in a healthier and clean environment. Children are the most vulnerable population and suffer most in disastrous situations.

ESSAY # 8

THE WORLD IS NOT BLIND TOWARDS WEST'S HYPOCRISY

OUTLINE

1- Introduction.

Thesis Statement

The western world has never upheld its values championed by them on international stage and the recent events have woke the people ~~and~~ regarding this hypocrisy arising questions about its sincerity.

2- West has always been ^a hypocrite, and world has now seen it.

3- Advocate of human rights and selective intervention.

a- Case Study of Iran.

b- Case Study of Middle East.

c- Case Study of Palestine.

3- Western Propaganda and Media Narratives.

a- Western Propaganda in their own interest.

b- Media Narrative of 9/11 attack.

c- Propaganda of War on Terror.

d- Selective Sanctions (Russia)

4- Economic Policies of West and Exploitation.

a- Western Economic Dominance - World System Theory

b- Trade Practices and Exploitation of Global South.

c- Global Economic Inequality.

d- Hypocrisy of Structural Adjustment Policies and their interests.

5- Conclusion.