Q# 7

Rise and fall is the narrative of every nation. But, for this, sense of belonging and national pride are necessary. After world war 2, it was hard time for Japan. Already 2 cities have been destroyed due to the destruction of atomic bomb. But, for Japanese biggest tragedy was humiliation of King. The rude behavior of Journalist Arthur, which he was adopted to the King, that fueled the spark of revenge within the Japanese. In the battlefield, Japanese started defeating America in every other field. Finally, within a few decades, it regained its lost position. It has a great lesson for Pakistan.
