

Q.2

Sentence Correction

Corrected Sentences :

- (i) Any of these three umbrellas will suit me -
- (ii) Every furniture ~~is~~<sup>in</sup> this display is on sale for half price
- (iii) I had met him last month -
- (iv) He has visited as many historical places as one has or can -
- (v) I prefer the fifth act of Shakespeare "King Lear", the best of all -
- (vi) Arshad's downfall was due to nothing but pride
- (vii) Is your dress different from mine?

Q.3 : Preposition

- (i) Don't take revenge ~~of~~ these slight injuries
- (ii) He distributed money ~~in~~<sup>among</sup> the poor

(iii) Success consists on determination

(iv) His words do not correspond to his action-

(v) I was disappointed by Akram's insecurity-

(vi) The teacher impressed to us the need for hard work-

(vii) Bureaucrats consider themselves responsible to none-

(viii) I shall pass your message on when he gets free-

(ix) Let's pass away the past mistakes and plan for the best-

(x) Corrupt politicians are responsible for the lawlessness in Pakistan

Idioms

f) Break the ice: خاموشی توڑنا
(To break the silence and start a conversation)

Sent: After waiting long hours for her to speak up, I finally broke the ice and asked her about her whereabouts.

g) Head over heels: بہت محبت کرنا
(To be madly in love with someone)

Sohni was head over heels for Mahiwal.

h) A bolt from the blue:
(Something coming out of sadness or grief)

All her letter came as the bolts from the blue.

b) Sit in: ہرنا دینا 'آواز بلند کرنا' (مل کر)
(People gathering together to discuss a matter for the sake of raising their voice)

Sit ins are the symbol of good political culture.

(a) A bad lot:

(Something or someone bad who has come out from a good background)

Aslam is a bad lot of her family; always smoking cigarettes and making ~~misogynist~~ misogynist jokes.

(b) Out and Out:
(Thorough, all)

Climate change is out and out a threat for ~~man~~ mankind

Q1. Translation

(A)

Any kind of noise that disturbs the lives of people is termed as Noise Pollution. If left unchecked, this noise pollution can pose serious threats to the minds as well as bodies of living organisms. In Pakistan, it is <sup>one</sup> of the major reasons of damage and irritability. In urban settings, particularly in large cities, it has reached to tremendous levels. For instance, a survey conducted in Punjab by an environmental protection agency reveals that the noise ~~pollution~~ levels in Lahore have reached 91 decibels. This is grave in comparison ~~is~~ to the ultimate tolerable noise being only 75 decibels. All of this implies that the mental and physical health of people is already at stake.

(B)

Nature has <sup>blessed</sup> ~~granted~~ man with the strange phenomenon of always staying connected to hope. When one door closes, he finds another one opened and so on. The process goes on throughout his life. Perhaps, if the nature had not done that, man would have died on his first despair.