

Date: _____

Topic: Thus speaketh justice onto me: "Men are not equal". And neither shall be they become so.

1- Introduction

By viewing the history, it is evident that men have been divided into different classes on the basis of social and economic attributes. This division among humans is done by the mightiest groups for their interests. Furthermore, equality among humans shall never be achieved because governance system has been designed so.

2- Existence of ^{the} huge disparity at individual, societal, and international level

3- Since ages men have been divided along different lines

a) During ancient times, men were divided into classes on the basis of professions

Date: _____

b) During ancient as well as in contemporary times, existence of division on the basis of knowledge

c) unequal distribution of material resources has also created inequality

d) Formation of classes on the basis of religion

e) In contemporary times, men are divided on the basis of caste, creed, linguistic, and nationality

f) Using modern tools, the resourceful states are kept deprived by powerful states

4. Why Men are not Equal

a) Intellect level varies ^{from} person to person, and intelligent ^{individuals} controls others

b) Hierarchical society is managed in a better way

c) Nature has created men unequal with varying ^{levels of} strength

d) Innately, it is instilled in humans to live in classes

Date: _____

e) Religions have also divided men into classes on basis of their capabilities

5- Equality in men cannot be achieved in future

a) All the power centers are dominated by elites for whom inequality is favourable

b) By controlling education, men are made to resign their natural rights to powerful groups

c) Absence of desire in deprived ones for gaining equality

d) All around the world, governance systems are designed to support wealthy class

e) Deprived ^{ones} are trapped into vicious circle of inequality

6- Conclusion