

✓ They serve for the state interest rather than personal interest vi They discourage the gender discrimination in order to maintain equality

c. How women build strong nation,

I Mother ^{can} develops reading and writing habit from the childhood

II Child (mainly) adopt the women's discipline which she maintain at home

III Women make a line of right and wrong for their kids so that they can justify between right and wrong

iv Child violence can be controlled by child-mother communication and love

Date: _____

MTWTFSS

Thesis statement:

A child acquire the understanding of discipline, selflessness, confidence, equality respect at home which develop a strong child and strong child makes a strong nation.

Outline:

- a. Introduction
- b. characteristics of a strong nation:
 - I They follow rules and regulation to maintain discipline
 - II They serves for the justice
 - III They prefer peace and dialogue rather than war
 - IV They maintain the human rights and stand against the human rights violation

Date: _____

MTWTFSS

- v Women can develop a confident child by giving the liberty of decision
- vi child acquire the knowledge of selflessness from the mother's acts
- vii child gain an understanding of respect of elders and other genders at home

d. Conclusion

Introduction

"Give me the strong mothers I will give you the strong nation" (Nepolian)

God creates a woman for the man so that they can run the generation. Every successful man have a woman behind its success.
So, we cannot deny the importance of a woman in our society. In order to see how female build strong nations we must know the characteristics of a strong nation.
Strong nation have maintained discipline, have high literacy rate, served for the justice,

Date: _____

M T W T F S

preferred peace and dialogue, maintain human rights, served for the state interest and avoid gender discrimination.

(A child acquire the understanding of such traits). A child developed such traits by acquiring the understanding of discipline, selflessness, confidence, equality, respect at home by the mother. Such traits develop a strong child which develop a strong nation.

M T W T F S

Thesis statement:

A child acquire the understanding of discipline, selflessness, confidence, equality respect at home which develop a strong child and strong child makes a strong nation

Outline:

a. Introduction

b. characteristics of a strong nation:

I They follow rules and regulation to maintain discipline

II They serves for the justice

III They prefer peace and dialogue rather than war

IV They maintain the human rights and stand against the human rights violation