

Topic: 7

Answer:

Outline:

I- Introduction

Thesis statement:

The strength of Nation can be supposed by the significant contribution of its women, who play a vital role in shaping and supporting men at the forefront of societal growth and development.

II- Historical Perspective:

- (a) ~~How~~ How women play crucial roles in supporting men during challenges
- (b) Society changes and role of women in shaping nation

III- Women Empowerment

- (a) Importance of empowering women in various aspects such as education, employment etc.
- (b) women contribute to a nation's economic development

IV- Impact of strong women on family and society value

V- Role of women in politics and governance

VI- The challenges women face in contributing to a nation's strength

VII- How to overcome these challenges and promoting gender equality

VIII- Conclusion

Introduction:

Women play a very important role in shaping society and prosperity. The strength of a nation is not determined by its male leaders but also by the strength and contributions of its women.

Women contribute in politics and governance and make decisions for the progress of any society. It promotes a view of strength acknowledging the diverse and essential role of women in shaping a nation.