Question#01

TRANSLATION

PARAGRAPH (A)

Any kind of noise that disturbs the human life is called noise pollution.

If this pollution is left unattended, it can severely affect the body and mind of humans and animals. In Pakistan, noise pollution is one of the major causes of pain, anxiety and stress.

In urban areas and big cities, noise pollution has reached to an alarming level. For example, according to the survey of climate security agency, the level of noise has reached to 91 decibel, however, the tolerable limit is 75 decibel.

It means that many people's mental and physical health is already at stake.

PARAGRAPH (B)

The nature has disposed a unique system of hope and bound to the rope of hope in human nature. If one rope breaks, one can hold the second one. If second breaks then third... and this procedure continues till the last breadth. Perhaps, if there is no hope in human nature, it has been ended already due to despair. He would have died of despair.
