

Implications of climate change for children in developing countries.

Outline:

1- Introduction.

Thesis statement:

Climate change has emerged as an existential threat primarily for developing countries. The new generation will be highly affected as living conditions worsen due to natural calamities. Formulation of effective strategies and strict implementation will mitigate the ~~overall~~ effect.

2- Climate change; An existential threat.

3- Implications of climate change on children.

a- Depletion of natural resources.

b- Shift towards extreme weather conditions.

- Extreme prolonged summers in Pakistan.
- Extreme winter overall.

c. Rise in natural disasters.

→ Frequent floods in Pakistan.

→ Earthquakes in Japan.

→ Forest fires in Turkey.

d. Worsening of economic conditions.

•) Effects on ~~climate~~ developing states.

e. Rise in health conditions.

•) Respiratory disorders.

f. Threat of water scarcity.

•) New generation risk of droughts.

g. Effect on education acquisition.

•) extreme weather → holiday.

•) reduced syllabi.

h. Increased child labor.

i. Looming threat of food scarcity.

•) Warnings of UN and WHO.

3. Mitigating climate change: A way forward.

- a. Need for implementation of climate pledges.
- b. Allocation of funds for developing nations.
- c. Curb on the use of coal.
- d. Global consensus for mitigation of climate change.

Conclusion.

Introduction:

The activities of the developed world prove costly for the developing world. The lack of global consensus on the looming threat of climate change serves as the major cause for the rise in global temperature. Climate change, challenged the developing World. The children of developing nations will be highly affected as they face the threat of water and food scarcity. Lack of clean drinking water will be a luxury and available to few only.

The World is not blind towards Western hypocrisy.

1. Introduction.

Thesis statement.

The ongoing genocide in Gaza and double standards of West are no more a secret. Continuous support of Western world for the war acts are now evident and the world can no longer remain unaware of hypocrisy.

2. World turning deaf ear towards Western action in the past.

3. Western hypocrisy and the World.

a. Holocaust in Germany Vs self defense in Israel.

b. Ethnic cleansing

c- Apartheid in Palestine and South Africa. (the repetition of acts)

d. Terrorist attacks Vs self defense.

e. Covert and overt support to war mongers (Israel, middle East).

4. World's reaction to West.

a- Massive protests around the world.

b- Bycotts for economic shocks.

c- Neo-marxism on rise ; (sentimental by sell approach.

d- End of Globalization.

5. World is not blind but helpless.

a- Power concentration in the West.

b- International Financial Institutes.

c- Supremacy of western political system.

d- Rising multipolarity ; India, China, Russia's emergence .

5- Conclusion .