Holy Prophet (PBUH) said,

"If my mother were alive, she called me I would answer her. even I had to break namaz."

"Once a beduin came to Prophet (PBUH) and asked who is most rightful of my good conduct, Prophet (PBUH) said "Your mother," then he asked after her, He (PBUH) replied, "Your mother." Then he asked. Holy Prophet (PBUH) said "your father." (Bukhari)

"طلب العلم فريضة على كل مسلم"

"It is mandatory to acquire knowledge (male or female)."

In a nutshell women are granted true rights of property, vote, opinion, participation in state affairs. Hazrat Umar (RA) allocated a woman as a leader of a city to see market affairs. Hence, Europe or West is unable to provide such example.

Will Durant (Historian) said that, I always found the religion of Muhammad (PBUH) as on top of the lists due to its truthfulness, simplicity and clarity.

Q No 6

Introduction; Good Governance in Islam

Good governance is fair dealing in state affairs.

Allah says,

7 "Follow Allah, his Apostle and those who are in authority."

Islam has provided a true concept of good governance in which all are treated equal. There is no concept of high or low. As Allah says, يا ايها الناس انا خلقناكم من ذكركم واناك وجعلناكم شعوبا وقبائل لتعارفوا. انا اكرمكم عند الله اتقاكم...

All are equal in sight of Allah. Only who are more

8
in dignity are those who ~~were~~
have piety and God consciousness.

Principles of Good Governance:

- Sovereign Power is Allah
- Equal rights to all people without considering caste, creed or religion<sup>8</sup>
- minority rights in Islamic state
- Concept of accountability
- Punishment system
- Huded system.
- Importance of life
- Promotion of simplicity in Islamic values

1- Sovereignty of Allah

In Islam, sovereignty belongs to Allah. He is the only supreme power in Islamic state. Elected candidates shall run the state affairs by considering government as a promise by God to run country according teaching of Islam.

2- Equal Rights of All people.

All the people are equal in the sight of Allah. No one is superior to others except taqwa, piety or God consciousness. Even governors of state were not allowed more rights.

Hazrat Umar (RA) used to write a command while appointing someone as governor of a state. The main points were

1- He would not wear heavy cloth.

2- He would not ride Arabian horse

3- He will keep his door open for everyone

3- Minority Rights

Islamic governance system provided full minority rights. Those who paid Jizya were called Zimmis. They were granted full protection in Islamic state.

Once<sup>10</sup> in Hazrat Umar era an old Zimmi was begging. Hazrat Umar asked him the reason. He said that, due to old age and poverty, he is unable to pay jizya. Hazrat Umar (RA) proclaimed not to demand jizya from poor non-believers.

4- Concept of Accountability:

There was a concept of accountability regarding reign of Pious Caliphs. Once Hazrat Umar (RA) said what will you do if we go astray. An old man said, "we shall take sword to keep you on right path." Hazrat Umar thanked God.

Once Hazrat Umar (RA) was commanding the public. A man stood in front of Hazrat Umar (RA) and said, "we shall not obey you until you tell how the cloth was made which you are wearing." Hazrat Umar (RA) replied that he got second clothes from his son.

4- Punishment System.

Hazrat Umar (RA) justly introduced prison houses during his reign. He established the department of shurta. in which young strong men were given jobs.

Moreover, there was no ease in Hudood cases even Hadrat Umar (RA) stoned to death his own son.

5- Importance of life.

Allah says,

" He who murders an human (whether muslim or non Muslim) unless before murder or spread corruption on the land he is as though as kills whole of human kind and who save a single life, he is as though as he saves whole of humanity."

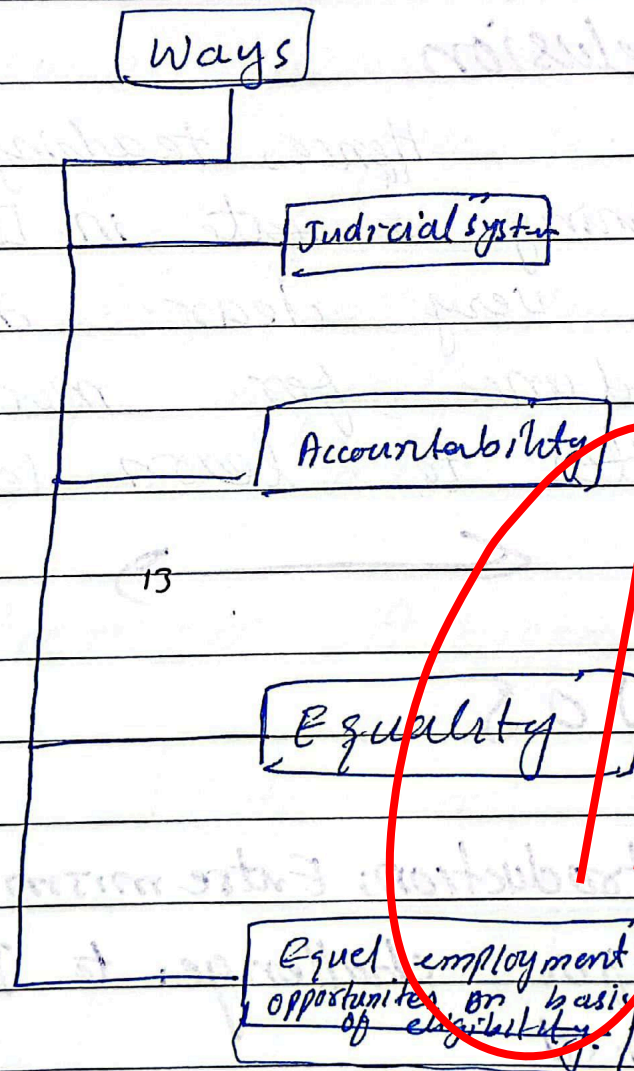

Al-Qur'an

Islam has provided importance to human life. Holy Prophet (PBUH) once said, "Life of muslim is more important than kaaba."

Ways

Ways how modern States can benefit from Islamic Principles

Hence modern states can benefit from Islamic principles by providing free and cheap justice to every

One. There should be a strict accountability for corrupt people. Equal rights should be provided to all citizens regardless of caste, creed and religion.

to Conclusion

Hence, teachings of governing a state in Islam are very clear and guidance for modern states to learn lessons.

Q N O S

Introduction; Extremism a bigger challenge: to Islamic world.

Although western biased behavior towards Islam and Muslims is fierce and extreme yet there is need to transform the Islamic world from extremism towards peace, prosperity. In my point of view, extremism has caused a bigger challenge to Islam and Muslim countries.

Sectarian system has also put fuel to fire. It is need of hour to stop extremism in Muslim world through negotiation and diplomatic tactics.

Extremism; A bigger challenge

1- Sectarian Conflicts.

Unfortunatly, there <sup>in</sup> muslim countries Shia, Sunni conflicts became reason of extremism in which people of one creed consider people of opposite belief as Kafirs or no-believers. In such incidents <sup>16</sup> millions of people have lost their lives in countries including Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Saudi Arabia and Yemen. Islam forbade the sectarianism.

واعتصموا بحبلِ اللَّهِ ولاتفرقوا

"And Hold the rope of Allah (Quran) firmly and do not get divided."

(Al-Quran)

2- Lack of tolerance

In some muslim countries various sectarian people do not tolerate other sects. They fight to kill others which become cause of extremism. Western countries took exemplary Muslims and represent them as true face of Islam due to which image of Islam goes wrong in other countries.

The example of tolerance set by our beloved Prophet (PBUH) is unique.

"He (PBUH) forgave the murderer of his uncle Hazrat Hamza (RA) in battle of Uhud."

During conquest of Makkah he declared pardon for all offenders.

3- Role of Black Sheep

Black sheep are present

In every society, some sectarian people kill others by considering their creed false. Islam teaches tolerance and guides to remain united against enemy.

4- Role of Foreign Agencies

There are clear signs of involvement of foreign agencies in <sup>18</sup> killing of company owner of Sri Lanka in Faisalabad incident and attack on Christian community. Such type of extremist acts are occurred by foreign agencies who use locals for their own benefits.

5- Government Policies

Government should initiate tolerance policies to provide equal opportunities to local people. to serve their country in all sectors. Unfortunately, in country like Pakistan, qualified people are unemployed and they may become easy prey of extremist acts.

Steps to curb Extremism
from Muslim Society

Have constant look on foreign involve most

Conclusion:

Islamophobia in west has also gave loss to Islam and Muslims in the west. According to a professor in University of California:

"Israel has been funding <sup>20</sup> to spread Islamophobia in the world."

Moreover, the biggest damage to image of Palestine has been reached by extremism in some Muslim countries which need to be curbed on urgent basis.

القارِبَةُ مِنَ الْقَارِبَةِ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْقَارِبَةُ and those whose sins are more they will enter into Hutama. Hutama is fierce fire.

Not even an atom's weight of good or evil deed will be concealed.

يَعْمَلُ مَنْ عَمِلَ ذُرَّةً شَرًّا فَرَىٰهَا
