Precis:

The significant role of media in spreading awareness in society also comes with its shortcoming of spreading mis-information. In a race of fast spread of information, the authenticity is compromised.

4/15 Social media platforms are amplify this process and increasing public difficulty. The over simplification and compromised analysis by media for continuous spreading more information making it difficult for public to reflect upon it. This not only affecting cultural and societal norms but also results in compromised understanding leading to confusion. The endorsement of unrealistic and ~~and~~ contradictory values for financial gains has lead to dis-orientation and uncertainty. The poor checks has lead to pursue self-interests over societal interests.

Qno.2: Comprehension.

Q/A.

- 1/5 (i) The sportsmanship is conceptualized as an enduring and in possession of stable characteristics in comparison of others due to the spirit of sports. It encompasses great virtues of fairness, self-control, courage and persistence. These are developed in a sportsman by rigorous training and understanding the essence of sport.
- 2/5 (ii) The four elements of sportsmanship are being in good form, the will to win, equity and fairness. All of these elements must be present in a balance because their imbalance will lead to conflict and clash.
- 2/5 (iii) The desire to win sometimes leads to conflict with equity and fairness in sportsmanship because it will make him to pursue the unfair means to get undue advantage over his opponent. In this way the desire to win without equity and fairness will cause conflict of values.
- (iv) A sore loser, exhibits poor sportsmanship after losing, will react immaturely and does not take responsibility of lost. By this behavior he always resort to blaming petty issues. However, A bad winner, showing proud behavior, will act to lower the self-esteem of the opponent.

3/5 In view of above both of these behaviors badly affect the perception of sportsmanship by compromising the virtues of the sports.
