Question #07

Translation

Rise and fall is the parable of every nation, but it requires a sense of loss and national integrity. After the second World War, it was a tough time for Japan. The destruction of atomic bomb had already obliterated two cities. However, for Japanese, the bigger dilemma was the humiliation of their king. The humiliating behaviour of General MacArthur towards the king had ignited the fire of revenge in Japan. Although not in battlefield, but in every other department, Japan started to defeat America. Finally, within a few decades, this nation succeeded in regaining its lost status. In this parable, there is ~~at~~ ~~is~~ a big lesson for Pakistan.

- Ad hominem:

Yes, I after reading the given selection, I have a clear idea of what ad hominem means.

In court of law, ad hominem is the practice of discrediting a lawyer's argument by attacking his personal choices. It refers to attacking the attorney on view of facing the argument.

Plz explain the term

(02)

- How Lincoln convinced Jury:

Lincoln succeeded in convincing the jury by proving his opponent to be uncivilized. His jury was made up of fine frontiersmen, who disliked the way in which Lincoln's opponent buttoned up his shirt.

(03)

• Lincoln's Tactic as non-malicious:

Lincoln's tactic was non-malicious because it did not possess any serious allegation or abusive remarks about the opponent lawyer. It simply pointed out the dress code violation done by the opponent lawyer. Moreover, in view of the result, it does not matter whether the tactic was malicious or not.

(04)

• Lincoln's Risk by Using ad hominem:

The result of the case was on stake. Lincoln took the risk of losing the case by using ad hominem because it could lead to overruling of Lincoln's argument. If I had been an opposing lawyer, I would have countered Lincoln's move by either requesting for over-ruling this objection or bringing up an ad-hominem about Lincoln.
