

Question no: 02 "Precis"

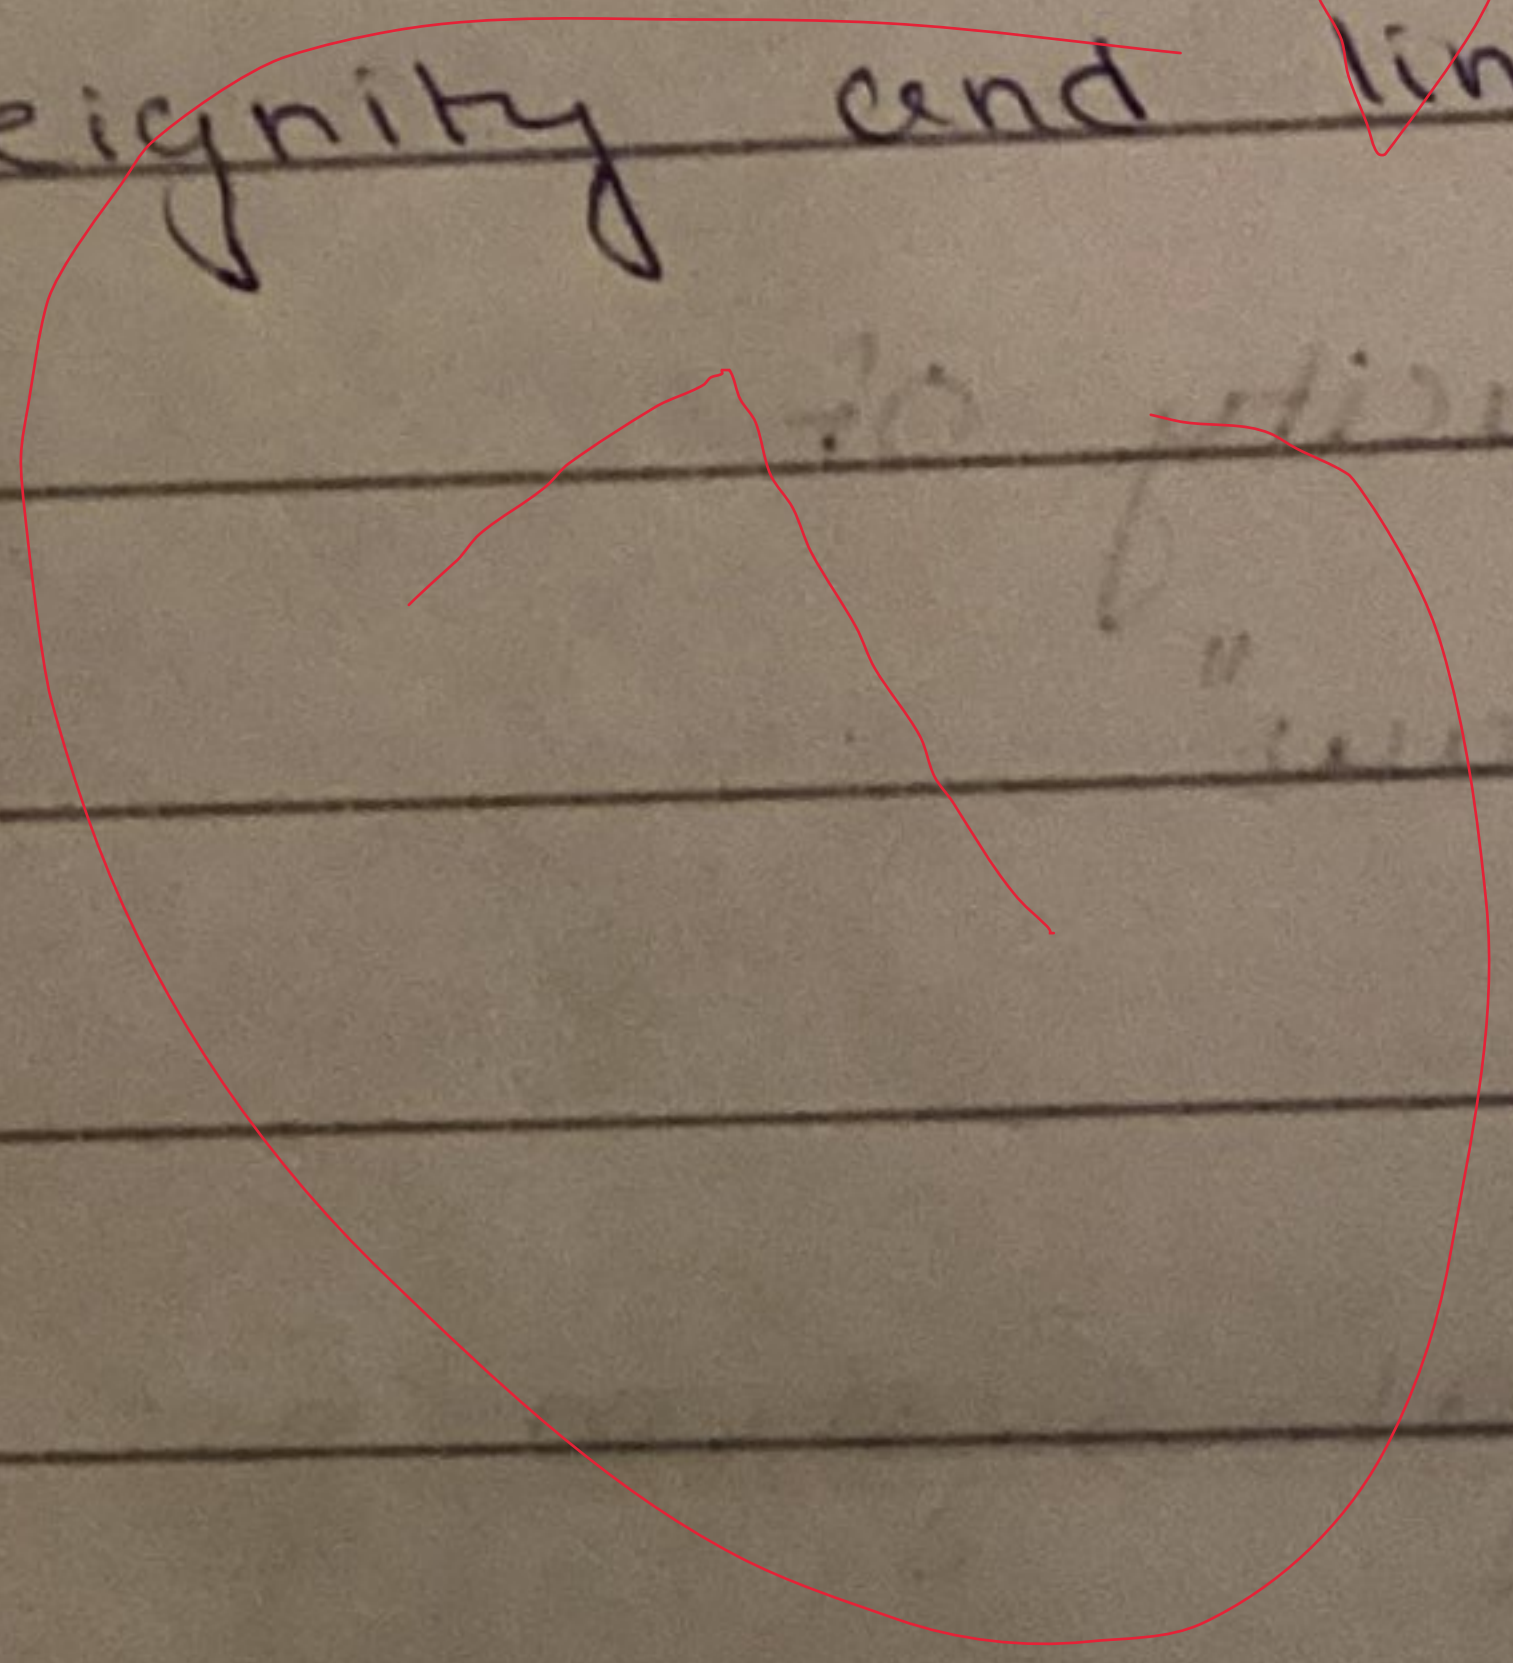

paradoc of International law

"The Working Capacity of International Law"

The domestic and legal system are different from each other, as there is absence of central authority and system of sanction in the latter one. The contradictory nature of international law is in the form of sovereignty which either the state possess or compromises it through submission to law. Some believe this ~~is~~ ambiguity is solved by theory of consent which claims that imposition of international law depends on the clear or insinuated acceptance of law by state. Therefore, sovereignty paves through the binding character of international law. Some believe international legality as form of deception, while others find it adequate if lawyers are allowed to construct the understanding of the passage is fine wait on your grammar please framework. Hence, the true feature of international law is in the exhibition of sovereignty and limitations

Word count:

Words in paragraph = 349

Précis words = 120

Question no: 04

- a) Hundreds of student gathered to attend the conference by Hassan Ali Gondal.
- b) I am one of those who cannot describe what I feel.
- c) ~~Between~~ ^{of} novel and poetry the last one is more important.
- d) The reading of poetry gives more delight than reading prose.
- e) Sir Huzarifa left for Mianwali last Friday and arrived there on Monday.
- f) The professor and orator both are dead.
- g) I never had and never will abuse anyone.
- h) You ~~need~~ ^{do not} need to rebuke him.

Question no: 05

Part (A)

One day a friend visited Hodja and said, "Hodja, I want to borrow your donkey." "I'm sorry," replied Hodja, "but I've already lent it to someone else." As soon as a he said this the donkey brayed, "But Hodja, I can hear the donkey!

It's in the stable!" Shutting the door in his friend's face, Hodja told him with dignity, "A man who believes the word of a donkey above my word does not deserve to be lent anything!"

Part (B)

- (i) The doctor gave me a prescription for my cough.
- (ii) Nowadays Majid studies through out the whole day.
- (iii) Throw this pen in the dustbin.
- (iv) He went to the desert.
- (v) While walking on the bank of river, Wordsworth saw a large number of daffodils.
- (vi) I don't approve of your language, young man.
- (vii) The bird flew above my head.
- (viii) In the examination you have to answer all the question in an hour.

Question no: 06

2) To burn one's bridges.

Despite the accruing debt, she was unable to ~~the~~ quit the job as she started it when she burned ~~the~~ ^{her} bridges.

3) Square peg in a round hole.

Her creative way of working ^{her} posits her a square peg in a hole in administrative job.

4) To cut the Gordian knot

Politicians were ~~can~~ promising to eliminate the corruption through cutting of the guardian knot.

8) For good

She donated all of her money in a charity event for good.

1) To eat the humble pie.

The lawyer ate the humble pie when he failed to produce the required evidence.

Question no: 07

The rise and fall is the story of every nation. However it requires sensibility and integrity of the nation. After World War II Japan had to face severe consequences. The nuclear bomb destruction had already destroyed the two cities. However, the bigger infliction of pain for Japanese was the denigration of the king. The rude behaviour of General McArthur with the king had sparked an ignition in Japanese. Not in the battle ground but Japanese ^{started} were able to defeat the Americans in every other field of life, at least in a few decades this nation was able to regain its lost glory. This tale possess a big lesson for Pakistan.